Tom Presnell .Tom Presnell I have been hiking, camping anything outdoors all my life and had never made the trip to caesars head I have driven by it hundreds of time but had never stopped until we made it part of our nature trip a couple of weeks ago. It took me 52 years to see a sunset from caesars head I encourage everyone to see this just once. It is fifty feet from the ... See Moreparking lot to the overlook an awe inspiring sight! We made some great pictures but they still do not do it justice!! I posted my pictures on the site!!

Clyde S. Gorsuch You couldn't ask for a more perfect spot to view sunsets. I've seen some beauties from there in the fall.

Ken Van Atten Used to spend a LOT of time up at Caesar's Head, as well as the Brevard, N.C. area, Mt. Pisgah, etc. when I was growing up and have so many wonderful memories !!! Matter of fact, the road running up the mountain from the Greenville side is named the Geer Hwy. which was my mother's (Lord bless her soul) maiden name and the highway named after her family...And Karen I agree 110% with your comment...absolutely !!!
