All Negroes whatever found in any of the Departments whose names are not mentioned in the several lists published in this Gazette, will be returned to their respective owners, upon their producing to the Department where said Negroe or Negroes are employed, an order from the Commissioner of Claims office. If His Majesty's Service should require at any future time more labourers than are at present engaged on the works, they will be furnished from the sequestered estates. All masters of transports and merchant ships are strictly forbid to employ any negroes on board their vessels without their having a ticket from their owner, or to carry off any unless they are the absolute property of some person on board, as all masters so offending may depend upon being taken into custody and be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. Due attention is required to be given to all Orders from the Commissioner of Claims, that the loyal inhabitants of this province may have their property restored to them. By order of the Commandant. James Clitherall, Robert Ballingall & Thomas Inglis, Commissioner of Claims, Charlestown, February 23, 1781. The Public Service demanding that Mr. Gadsden's wharfs & warehouses should be appropriated for the use of the Department under my care, and as that property comes under the description of what is secured by the capitulation, I have, with the permission and approbation of the Commandant, agreed with Mrs. Gadsden for the same. John Cruden. 30 January 1781.

WILL; mulatto; ritual scarification?; b. North Carolina? Virginia? Africa?

Johnston, Robert

RUN away on Tuesday the 29th of May, a MULATTO MAN named WILL, about 22 years of age, with a very bushy head of hair, and a remarkble scar on each cheek and in his forehead; had on a blue negro cloth coat, with red cape and cuffs, speaks with the Virginia or North Carolina accent, and by seeming simplicity will be apt to gain belief, being a most artful, designing fellow. FIVE GUINEAS reward will be paid for apprehending and delivering him at No. 2, St. Michael's Alley, TEN on the conviction of any master, seaman or other person concealing him with a design to carry him off this province, will be paid to the informer, by ROBERT JOHNSTON.

WILL

Gibbs, John Walters

RUN away from the subscriber about the middle of last month, TWO NEGROES, named WILL and SALL. Will is a young fellow, about 20 years of age, five feet six inches high, black and something pock-marked, is a great thief and liar, remarkable lazy and loves rum; he carried with him a bright brown coloured Kerseymire coattee, waistcoat, and breeches, a drab coloured broad cloath ditto, with old spangled buttons, a hat with a yellow band, and the crown covered with the skin of a large bird; as both the suits of cloathes were made for me, they are considerably too large for him. This being the fifth time of his having eloped from me, without any cause, and for which he has never received any punishment, I hope whoever apprehends him will be so good as to give him a severe whipping. He has now enticed away with him a young mulatto or mustee wench named SALL, about 18 or 20 years of age, five feet two or three inches high, flat nosed, is a remarkable liar, very artful, and tells a plausible tale; she carried with her a red negro cloath jacket or wrapper, a white ditto, a yellow quilted petticoat and some other cloathes not known. I have had information of the fellow having been seen in town; but as he has a number of relations living upon Wadmelow and Edisto Islands, I have reason to believe they will skulk about there. I will give FOUR DOLLARS to any person for delivery of each to me, or to the Keeper of the Sugar-house in Charlestown; And in order to make an example, and to prevent as much as possible, the villainous practice of harbouring runaways, I will give a further reward of TEN GUINEAS on receiving proper proof of them or either of them being harboured on board of any vessel, or by and white person on shore; and TWO GUINEAS if by a negro, such proof enabling me to prosecute the offender to conviction. J.W. GIBBS. N.B. They left me on Wadmelow Island, to which place I had gone for the benefit of my health. Charlestown, June 8, 1781.

ONE GUINEA reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to me at Kinloch-Court, No. 1; and TEN GUINEAS to any one who will give such proof of his being harboured on board any vessel in port, which is what I suspect, as that the offender may be prosecuted. The house is of brick and in good repair, and the other buildings are as good as new; there are on the lot a good kitchen, wash-house, back store-house, a place for negroes, a large stable about 45 feet long, extending the width of the lot, having stalls compleat for each horse, with a place in the middle for carriages, and a hay loft all over the stable; the yard and stable are all paved with brick; and there is a well of good water, with proper drains from thence to the street. Its situation for trade, either as a store or tavern, is unexceptionable, King-street being the leading street from the country, which is so well known as to render a farther description thereof unnecessary. Any person inclinable to purchase, may treat with him for terms and price. The purchaser of said house and lot, if in want, may be supplied with a dozen or more feather beds, bedsteads, matrasses, sheets and other bed furniture, with pavillions; also, table, chairs, desks, table linen, china, an eight day clock, sundry looking glasses, about two hundred ounces of plate, and a variety of kitchen and other furniture too tedious to enumerate; likewise, nine valuable house negroes, equal to any of their colour in the province for sobriety and honesty. The reason for offering the above sale, is the subscriber's bad state of health, who intends for Britain with the first convoy; he therefore desires all those to whom he is indebted, to call on him for payment; and those who are indebted to him by bond, note or open account, to call and make payment before the tenth of October next, as after that day they will find all his books and papers in the hands of his attorney, to be sued for.

HE HAS FOR SALE a Lot of Land, being the corner lot on Tradd and Church-streets, containing 20 feet some inches on Tradd-street, and 82 feet on Church-street, with the foundations and brick cellars of two houses, one of which [has] the wall mostly up, being brick; there is on the lot a quantity of old bricks that would near build up one house, and that with a small expence; its situation for trade and pleasantness is most advantageous, and requires no farther recommendation. ALSO upwards of four thousand Acres of Land, in eight separate tracts, all in different parts of this province, which he will dispose of very low. Any person inclinable to become a purchaser of said lands, may treat as above, where plats of each are to be seen, and can be informed where said lands lye, with the improvements on them.

HAVING certain information that numbers of Negroes, the property of the enemy in general, and of the sequestered estates in particular, are held in this town by people who have no right or authority to detain them, as well as others the same property, who, under various pretences, go about uncontrolled, to the distress of the inhabitants, the detriment of Government, and in direct violation of orders that have been repeatedly issued to prevent such practises: IN ORDER THEREFORE to put an effectual stop to such abuses, I HAVE, by virtue of the powers in me vested, for the seizure of the property of the enemy, appointed Mr. JAMES GORDON to receive returns of all such negroes, which are directed to be made to him, at his office at No. 11, Tradd-street, on or before the 31st day of this present month December; and the said JAMES GORDON is empowered by me to hire out all such negroes as shall not be employed in the different publick departments; and all negroes who are hired out, or have leave to work out, under passes from me, are directed to pay up the arrears due from their wages at said office, and receive new passes, or be otherwise disposed of before the said 31st instant, on failure or neglect of which, they will be considered as vagrants, and confined. Any person or persons employing or harbouring such negroes, without such renewed passes under the hand of said Mr. JAMES GORDON after the above date, (those employed in the King's Service excepted) will be considered as designedly concealing sequestered property, and punished accordingly: And that no person may plead ignorance, I have directed this advertisement to be inserted in all the Gazettes six different times.
