Instead of requesting the removal maybe it would be better to educate people on the true meaning of the flag. That it is not about race but Southern Pride an Independant Free Spirit. Not to controlled by too powerful over reaching controlling (George Orwell) Big brother Government. It should stay right where it is. This sounds like a PC move a political not a people move.

I object to your decision to remove the Confederate flag. In my opinion, it is egregiously wrong to give in to the ridiculous demands to do so. Do you not realize the background and history of this flat? It is PART OF AMERICA!!!! What does it symbolize? Not racism, not hatred. It symbolizes FREEDOM! The Confederates were fighting for their freedom from Government intervention. Please DO NOT buy into the ban of the flag. Listen to sane people like Ben Carson who say it's not the flag that is the problem, it's the mindset of people who are pushing this idea of racism for their own personal agenda and the gullible people who feel intimidated by their demands and give in to them. I am ashamed of the weakness of our leaders.

I'm an NC native. However, I heard your speech calling for the removal of the Confederate flag from your Statehouse. Gutsy move on your part, great speech, and such compassionate words for the victims' families of last week's murders. It's the right and timely thing for your state to do. You should think about running for President of the USA one day. I'd vote for you.

STATEMENT ON CHURCH SHOOTING IN GUATEMALA by Bishop Sam N. Clements, General Overseer, Church of God of Prophecy:

PRAYER REQUEST: A gunman entered our COGOP church in La Perez Guisasola in country Guatemala, opened fire, killing two people, and critically wounding several others. Bishop Ben Feliz, General Presbyter for country of Mexico, Central America and Spanish-speaking Caribbean, has asked for prayer for the families and the entire community. We will share more information as it is released.

We received the devastating news today that a gunman carried out a cowardly attack in a Church of God of Prophecy near Guatemala City last night. Although we are still waiting for additional information, we have heard that a young girl and young woman were killed while nine others were injured and are currently receiving medical treatment.

We want our Church family and the community to know that we stand with you, we love you, and we are praying for you. As the people of God under the empowering of the Holy Spirit, we come against these attacks of the enemy that are happening more frequently against our churches and all those of the Christian faith.

We in the International Offices, including Bishop Ben Feliz, General Presbyter for Central America, Mexico and the Spanish-speaking Caribbean, are calling for a prayer covering for our church members along with the larger Christian community in Central America and across the world. We trust in the Word of God that tells us, "Do not fear," because "greater is He that is within us than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Dear Gov. Haley,

Generally, I think you do a good job!

Did you know that 70 - 80 % of all black children are born to unmarried mothers? That these children are more likely to drop out of school and end up in prison? With these types of problems, do you truly believe that having the Confederate flag on the State House grounds is really contributing to these problems? I think not. Just because it's the "cause of the day" does not mean it's correct.

You still look like a good Governor, even if you do not push this agenda. Please reconsider.

Thanks.

Governor Haley,

Though I am not a citizen of the great state of South Carolina, I ask you to consider a compromise that honors the heritage of South Carolina, i.e., replacing the Confederate Battle Standard with the Gadsden Flag, linked in history to the Continental Colonel from South Carolina, Christopher Gadsden. Hailing from a time that is not forged in the war among the several states but from our common struggle for freedom from the British imperium, it honors both the noble history of South Carolina and the history of colonial America in its noble struggle for independence from Great Britain.

Undoubtedly you are busy with important issues more worthy of your time. Thank you for your patience with this request.

 <SUBJECT>Removal of the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

My deepest condolences for the members of the church in Charleston as that event was so tragic, but my disappointment is directed at you for the removal of a piece of history because of some person that chose his evil actions. That boy that chose to take life in regards to what he thought was morally just does not represent the rest of us from the south. I was impressed as I listened to you on Glenn Beck in the wake of this tragic event and thought how great it was of your handling of the situation, but then you go and remove the flag. It is evident that politics played a role in your decision indicating your lack of backbone. Those people in Charleston are incredibly strong and disciplined people that we all should learn from and respect, but for you to make such a decision is troubling and disappointing. Decisions like this make me further question the leadership of this once great country. And no, I'm not a bigot but I am from the south and proud of it. Southern heritage is so much more than what the liberal media depict it to be. Remember it was the Union that began the slave trade in America!!!

Hello...Take down the flag. I'm sure many heads came together for this but I would listen to Sen. Ford. I don't believe today was the day for this. At least wait until the poor people are buried. During a time of coming together no need to start a fight.

Respectfully,

First, I was born and raised in South Carolina, I supported this country in the military, I now live just across the line in Tabor City, and I still visit my family members in South Carolina, and I am planning on moving back.

Second, I am a lifelong supporter of the Heritage of our south, and our Religious Rights and Freedoms. I am a life member of "The Sons of Confederate Veterans", "Order of the Confederate Rose", and "Order of The Black Rose". I also had family members who fought for our Southern Rights. I was on the original rally in South Carolina, who marched in Columbia to keep the flag flying along with 40,000 other supporters. Now is the time for history. The flag that is in question is actually a Religious Symbol. It is the "Cross of Saint Andrew". Saint Andrew stated "he was not worthy to be crucified the same as Jesus". So when he was crucified, he was crucified upside down on a diagonal cross. It is a Religious Symbol, it is a flag of our heritage, and I along with thousands more will fight and rally Again to keep it flying HIGH!

I wish to express my displeasure with the fact that in your speech yesterday that the Statehouse is the peoples house, and there are no winners or losers in this fight, you are so WRONG, today as I sit here watching Channel 5 News there is a side claiming victory. I want to know how is there no winners or losers. We the Other People of the Statehouse who have our Freedom to Express our Southern Heritage for our Ancestors who fought for what they thought was right and died for at that period in time is being trampled upon! The fact that you say I have the right to Fly that Battle flag on my Private Property does not change the fact that as you said yourself that the Statehouse is the peoples house, but still the flag has to come down. I have compassion for the 9 people who were murdered by the hands of a deranged lunatic as well as the family and friends. I was raised in a religious family my mother made sure we went to church. In closing, there are winners and losers, and the losers are not going to be happy! I am afraid this showing of VICTORY is not going to help the cause!

Governor Haley,

I just wanted to express my thanks for your call for the flag's removal from the Statehouse Grounds. I am white and have lived in the South my entire life, and I have never understand why some folks cling so desperately to a symbol that causes feelings of deep pain for such a large portion of our citizenry. I know you will get a lot of negativity from flag supporters, but please know they are a small, but vocal, minority. You will forever have my admiration for standing up and making the only moral choice to be made. Thank you.

So taking down the Confederate flag is going to put an end to racism. BRILIANT! I just don't understand why someone didn't think of this before. We could have been living in a perfect world without racism, hate, crime poverty or any other terrible thing, if only that ugly, hateful thing had been gone along time ago. No, this will solve absolutely nothing. all it will do is give more power to the true race baiters. Caving in to pressure is what it is all about! Thought you South Carolinians had a little more backbone than that, but you proved me wrong. SAD!! Oh and by the way, The good old STARS AND STRIPES flew over slavery a lot longer than the Confederate flag ever did! I will be waiting to see just what a wonderful amazing change in peace harmony and race relations will now come over the "GREAT" state of South Carolina.

Although I no longer live in SC, I grew up there. As a young boy, I watched the Ku Klux Klan march and witnessed a burning cross. To not take down that flag is to COLLUDE in hate and racism....that will be your choice. By the way, the last time I checked the flag that represented Hitler's agenda is not flying anywhere! It is so sad.....

We here in New Mexico are disgusted that you will not encourage the legislature of SC to remove the confederate flag from the statehouse. This flag is as much a symbol of "southern heritage" as the Nazi flag is a "symbol" of the Final Solution. Your state and all the southern states who still would prefer not to be Americans, not join the Union, not admit defeat of a way of life seen as barbaric by the North will be boycotted by all the other, good, patriotic Americans everywhere else in the country who see that flag of racism as the unfortunate reminder of slavery. Stop yelling States Rats, States Rats--we KNOW already!

I suggest that the current Battle Flag be replaced with either a First National or Bonnie Blue (Palmetto version). These, especially the Bonnie Blue, would both honor the memory of the real Confederacy and not seem to be subject to the violence and mania associated with the Battle Flag. Moreover, due to a lack of knowledge of history, it's rather doubtful that a majority would even recognize them. I hope this suggestion will aid in both honoring your history and placating those who become hysterical over a symbol which is often mischaracterized as being the very definition of evil. Thank you.

Please pass this on to Governor Haley.

Honorable Nikki Haley,

Dear Governor Haley,

Many people in Colorado want to thank you for leading the effort to take down the Confederate flag from state buildings. We appreciate your courage and leadership in standing up to the long-standing affront to African American people as well as citizens from the North of all colors. We know that there are many caring and law abiding citizens of the South Carolina and other southern states, who want to say "NO" to racial prejudice, hate and intimidation, and we support your brave decision to end state continuation of the flag symbol which is seen as a sign of the white supremacy. We hope other states will follow your lead.

Yours truly,

Esther and Don [REDACTED]

Please take down the confederate flag. Even if no offense is intended, offense is obviously being taken by many of your citizens. It is even offensive to me, a conservative Texas Republican. Good neighbors do not behave this way. I am not interested in visiting a state that picks and chooses who to favor.

I am a Southern Traditionalist who takes great pride in everything about my South. That includes the Southern Cross. Much of our History has been revised and many are being misled not only about our history, but also about this awesome flag....

Point is....Let us have our say at the ballot box. Let South Carolinian's vote on the matter. It will remove Government, Race Hustlers, Political Correctness from this issue and allow the Southern People of South Carolina a final say on this matter.

If the majority vote to remove Her from the State Grounds, than I will support their will, in this way you are allowing those of us who oppose it a voice on the matter and it eliminates outside influences and pressures to some degree and places it in our hands.

If you take this matter upon yourself and remove our Southern Cross from the State Grounds without allowing us the right to vote, than you will no longer have my support, nor those from the 50 members in my family who voted for, and supported you Governor Haley.

You have done South Carolina well, and I have great things to say about you, but if you do not allow me to vote and have a voice at the ballot box, I'll turn away from you....

May God Bless and Guide You....
Sincerely Yours

We have enjoyed vacationing in SC, both in Charleston and Hilton Head. We have decided to boycott SC until the Confederate flag is removed from state property. While we understand that for some it is a matter of pride for us it represents racism and is repugnant. What individuals do is protected under the first amendment. What government does is a political decision. Our money votes for change and with the people of Mother Emanuel.

Madame Governor, As a direct descendant of Jefferson Davis, a retired veteran, and a true Son of the South, I want you to know that I fully support your decision to remove the Confederate Battle Flag from the state capital. I would however like to see its retirement to a museum be done with grace and honor...perhaps even a group of reenactors. Thank you for representing us so well.

Hi Gov Haley,

Just wanted to let you know myself and all my friends working here in Bermuda support you wholeheartedly. It is long past the time that the confederate flag should have been brought down. To keep it up sends a mixed message to people that, perhaps, one day, a return to the Confederate days may just happen. Let's move on in peace and friendship, not suspicion and hatred.

Excellent move! Don't worry about all the naysayers - they aren't living in the real world but their own made up world of hate.

Now, can you watch this link to an Australian comic who summarizes what the world thinks of the US and its gun laws? Australians have given up their guns...please research how they did it and what do their hunters do? Up here in NH where I have a house, there are many hunters and they eat what they kill. They don't use semi-automatic weaponry.

Please play this youtube video in Congress, if you can.

<http://www.washingtonpost.com/blogs/wonkblog/wp/2015/06/19/an-australian-stand-up-comic-explains-what-u-s-gun-laws-look-like-to-the-rest-of-the-world/>

Best regards,
Bina

Dear Gov. Haley,

I completely support your decision to move the Confederate battle flag to a museum where it belongs. I was born in South Carolina and I love and respect the state and the people. My great-great-grandfather, [REDACTED] and his FIVE brothers all fought for the Confederacy; two of them did not come home. I am proud of their history and service but it is past time to respect all of the citizens of South Carolina, many of whom's history is far different from that of my family.

God's speed, Governor. Let me know how I can help.

Sincerely,

Roy E. [REDACTED]

Captain, SC, [REDACTED]

I am in agreement that it is time to do something about the flag, but I really think you should let the people vote on it. Tell us what your intentions are if you take it down. It really looks like you are caving to outsiders. Again, I don't mind taking it down, but I really feel it should be voted on by the people, then your hands are clean either way. Thank you for your time.

To whom it may concern,

I want to start off with commending Nikki Halley with all the jobs and industry she has brought to our state. I have lived in South Carolina all my life. I wouldn't want to live anywhere else. My concern is the removal of history in our state. The Confederate Flag is a part of the History of this state. Being a citizen of this state, I Don't want to see it come down. Racism will never go away as long as the media continues to harp on it. We as a people can't continue to do away with things because it offends someone. If that be the case where will it stop?

Thank You for your time

Governor Halley;

You are in favor of removing the Confederate Battle Flag from the Confederate Memorial.
 I was raised in Connecticut, and most call me a DAMN YANKEE! I am offended too!
 The Capitol in Columbia has many stars indicating were Union Army cannonballs struck the Capitol. To me this is offensive. If we intend to erase history, we should remove them as well!

I am a Repulication and I voted to help put Haley in office. She has made decisions in the past that I have disagreed with but I have continued to support her. I will no longer do that because of her ridiculous stand on the flag. She has sold out and in doing so has taken the focus off of the victims of a hate felt man and placed them on a historic icon. No where does that stop the next shooting or act of violence. Address the the real problems our youth, mental illness, and the disenfranchised. Not to mention the complete lack of real leadership that runs this country; I will not vote for anyone regardless of their party that is in favor of destroying my countries history no matter what. The press will leave but my vote will remember this. Lisa [REDACTED]

The law says it must fly. So let it fly. Under a black tarp until the law is changed. Simple.

This would satisfy the letter of the law, but prevent the flag from being seen while Clementa Pinkney's body lies in state under the Capitol dome.

I am extremely disappointed in Governor Haley's recent decision to remove the Confederate battle flag from it's current location in Columbia. I have always been an ardent supporter of our governor, but I will find it difficult to do so anymore . In making this decision, she has capitulated to pressure coming from out of state , and from people who have utter disdain for South Carolina in general. Does the governor possibly believe this political capitulation will soften the relentless criticism from all the "haters" who never miss an opportunity to spew their hatred of South Carolinians ? Most troubling to me is that the Governor, with this action, is making a careless, "knee jerk" decision based on "feelings" rather than thoughtful consideration combined with the application e of common sense. Governor Haley, whom I thought was a strong conservative, is now acting like a weak kneed liberal Democrat. Sadly, she has lost my trust.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I very much respect and appreciate the public position you have taken on your state's flag? Your statesmanship sets you above so many of today's politicians and leaders. I am a grateful fellow American.

God bless your leadership of the great state of South Carolina.

Leave the flag alone. OR remove every monument on the State House grounds! Then remove the stars from the building. Then remove the building itself. Then build a new USC dorm on the spot. Gold Star Father and SC descendent sine the 1690's.PS: Then rewrite the State's history leaving out the years 1670 to 2015. Get a grip on it Governor, please.

I would like to encourage you to keep the confederate flag!

However, replace the stars with hearts of love!

America needs to understand that all need to love one-another!

I believe this act would bring more healing & restoration than any act that the government could do!

Possibly 12 white hearts & a pink or red heart in the middle!

America, So. Carolina, & the South need to love everyone regardless of where they came from, or their skin color!

I wish YOU the best is bringing healing to your great state!

Respectfully Submitted,

Jim [REDACTED]

Honorable Governor Haley;

Your decision to support removal of the Confederate flag must have been made with great difficulty, considering what it represents. I applaud your strength of character. I suspect you made your decision knowing that you will be subject to considerable criticism. I don't know if in fact it is the "right" decision, I only envision that it is a controversial one.

Living ones convictions is rarely so tested, I wish more of our elected officials served their constituencies with conviction. I wish you much future success and a satisfying personal and professional life.

reversing your decision on issues is the most divisive thing a politician can do to a people.

where will South Carolinas trust go now? Stand behind your decisions on 50/50 issues. Removing the flag will be no big deal for most of us, just knowing our leaders will change their minds for (political correctness) will be a big deal.

Dear Honorable Nikki Haley, Governor South Carolina:

Yesterday asked that you stand firm on the Southern Flag. It is an outrage that the Atheist Communist Gay Media propaganda apparatus used the tragic events that unfolded in Charleston to seize upon something to brand South Carolina as racist, which it is not.

Heard your speech on the news and you most assuredly did skillfully and adeptly extricate the State of South Carolina from a seemingly implacable position of condemnation by atheist perverts in the media hell bent on branding South Carolina as racist.

Thank you for defending the Character and Integrity of the South.

South Carolina is in truly competent hands - and as a Southerner thank you for representing us in the manner you did.

If you are going to remove the Confederate Flag, then the Black Monument needs to be removed also. The citizens voted on these to items to remove from atop The State House and be erected on the grounds and put up a Black Monument. If the State is going to change the vote of the citizens then this should also be grounds for the removal of the Black Monument.

You will be spitting on our 16th Presidents Grave, and all of the soldiers who fought in the Civil War. Do you even realize that your state was the state that fired the first shot of the Civil War. All of these facts show our Countries heritage and past. To remove the Battle Flag of the Confederacy is to remove our past and to not teach future generations what happened in our Countries history.

I'm writing to push for the removal of the Confederate flag. It is CLEAR that it is a sore subject for our black brothers and sisters and we need to show them that we hear them and we get it. Anything with racial ties, should not have prominent locations on government property. While we have come so far, I can only imagine the wounds re-opened every time someone sees that reminder and that racism was accepted then. I wish everyone could just not be offended by things, but some people can't and if we're going to reach a hurting world, we need to listen and respond appropriately to share Jesus with the world.

Gov. Haley,

Thank you for your work to take down the flag from the State House grounds. It showed that our state is not defined by our racist and segregationist past, and that we are trying to move forward to a more united and egalitarian future. I would suggest that you respond to the 'heritage' naysayers that the CSA's constitution and all the articles of secession from the former Confederate states all mentioned slavery as the primary impetus. And, the flag wasn't flying until the reaction against the Civil Rights Movement in the mid-20th century. That isn't heritage, that is hate.

Thank you for hearing the voice of your state, and responding accordingly.

Governor, you've been had.

Obama and the Feds have long been staging false flag operations in order to get America's guns. Once they do, they can run all over us. [<https://www.intellihub.com/false-flag-charleston-shooting-happened-during-federal-active-shooter-drill/>]

And as for black-white race relations, blacks all over America have long been engaged in what is called The Knockout Game, reported by Colin Flaherty. In it, they sucker punch a white passerby, often crippling or killing them. How convenient that none of you are reporting this.

As someone who has been repeatedly threatened and assaulted by blacks, without cause, I am deeply offended by your actions, which amount to cowardice.

When they assault you, it will be a different story.

 <MSG>

I was born in Anderson, SC and lived in Seneca, SC until I was 18 years old. My BS degree is from Furman University - all things I can well be proud of to this day. However, having the confederate battle flag STILL waving on the State House grounds is an embarrassment to me and anyone who is from SC and engages someone from another state in an intelligent and considerate discussion regarding this issue. It has LONG outlived its usefulness, and, at this point, will only continue to instigate division among the population of SC. I could also mention that it is just one more reason why our state is disregarded when important national issues arise. It makes us look like we are ignorant people still holding some kind of grudge, as opposed to intelligent, thoughtful people who genuinely care about community and our population as a whole. (I use "our state" because I am from SC, and I would like to see the rest of the nation respect the state.) I am proud of the way the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church has handled the shooting tragedy and that there is a movement toward unity. I think it is a time for unity, support and compassion. Not a time for a symbol that so many associate with hate.

Respectfully,

Kimberly [REDACTED]

Why in the world a state in the U.S. Would fly a flag that symbolizes the biggest blot on American history and causes division in America is beyond comprehension. Why a sitting governor, herself with a minority ethnic background that would have made her less than human at a time when that flag was first created, is even more incomprehensible. Instead of being tongue tied be like Christie, step away from the politics, make yourself historically significant, and speak out against this flag hanging on government property.

Two years into the war holding the union together was enough to keep support for the war alive any longer. Lincoln two year in (1863) after the battle of Antietam issued the emancipation proclamation and made it about slavery at that time. Of the 460,000 southern casualties how many do you think we're fighting to save slavery? Please protect our heritage and quit letting folks rewrite history. The flags not the problem.

I am from Mississippi, older than you, but have been a Republican for years. Tomorrow, I will enter the Court House here in Hinds County and request that my name be taken off the voting role. I am ashamed to be an American, I am ashamed that the memory of my ancestor who took a rebels stand in Vicksburg is being mocked, ridiculed, and despised and no one is saying anything about such sacrifices. As a member of the Scottish Nationalist Party, I will concentrate all my hopes in securing my personal freedom in Scotland and give all respect to my ancestral Alba, and it is there, to those people, I will strive to make what contributions I can. For what of value I do have to share, you just lost any chance of me sharing that in America....Slanite, James

Gov. Haley. May God bless you and give you insight into how to deal with the terrible shooting incident that has focused the attention of the nation on your state. May I make a suggestion on how to remedy the situation. Please consider placing the cross of Jesus Christ above ALL the flags because Jesus is above ALL of us and loves All of us above All human comprehension. Thank you for your time and effort. God rest the souls of the killed and may God's love comfort you ALL. Respectfully submitted Dan [REDACTED]

I wrote the other day and will write everyday until you start acting like a conservative and not a liberal. First I hope you can get the stench of the race baiter self appointed Rev Al off you. I wrote the other day that you needed to start removing the illegals and there illegal kids from our state and they will not be accepted in our schools this year. It didn't take long to decide to remove a flag that had nothing to do with slavery so no need to not get started on moving these people out of SC I'm sure other southern states will follow.

I don't know if you have noticed the Libs are getting there way and were sitting here on our hands. Gay marriage. flag, black panthers rallies, Odumbo's unaffordable health care. Thank goodness Trump is running the only Republican that will not support amnesty and will secure our borders. Lets start the ball rolling move illegals out start tomorrow.

I will write every day if I have to get you to do conservative things. And to the wise don't listen to the Mayor of Myrtle Beach I think he got elected same way as Odumbo can't find anyone who voted for him but there he is. I live in the area tourist area Black Biker Weekend is part of it and should stay THE DRUGS AND THE GANGS ARE HERE ALL THE TIME watch the news someone around here is getting shot or missing all the time twelve months a year.

I'll write again tomorrow if needed CONCERNED CONSERVATIVE

I am completely and utterly disappointed with your handing of the entire situation. The flag has NO representation of how those people were killed in Charleston, SC. Being a native of SC myself, born and raised prior to spending 20+ years of active service I cannot believe this is happening. I hope people never vote for you again after this term.

My Great Grandfather and Great Great Grandfather both served in the confederate army. Nether of them owned any slaves, they fought for independence for the southern states, and to prevent what we have now as a powerful federal government.

Mrs Haley, you have already had to fight the federal government to defend Boeing from leaving due to the National Labor Board and their decisions. Also you now have to accept Obama Care, whether we like it or not.

Due to your latest comments concerning the flag that my ancestors fought bravely under, I can no longer support you as governor of South Carolina.

Gov. Haley,

Thank you so very much for addressing the flag issue. It is very sad and distressing that it took such a tragedy to make us aware that we need to make changes in our state regarding race and culture but unfortunately often times that is what brings about a platform to advocate, argue for and make changes in many cases even beyond race. You could have just easily ignored it as many before you have done but you are a pioneer in many respects and regardless of political gain or lose you did the right thing for humanity. You have shown once again that it takes a strong woman to make bold changes. Thank you again. You are my Hero!!! God Bless you and God Bless our great state and country.

Sincerely,

Stephanie [REDACTED] RN

Thank you for your stance in favor of the taking down of the Rebel Flag. It was raised to show contempt for the civil rights changes of the 1960's and sends the wrong message to young people who are looking for a cause, as young people do. Acts of violence such as the one which occurred in Charleston last week, must be characterized as acts of cowardice, not of bravery. Choosing so called "soft targets" is a clear statement that many of our youngsters do not understand the concept we learned as children, "Pick on somebody your own size!" We have to help them to see their behavior in that light. Mass shootings of unarmed, unsuspecting persons are acts of cowardice. When it is done to put fear into a larger audience, that is terrorism and should be called this.

Dear Governor:

You took a courageous sincere step to remove the Confederate flag from the state house.

Hopefully the legislature will act as well.

Maybe gun control can also be a logical means of stopping unnecessary deaths across this nation.

Nobody wants to take a person's right to have a gun, but things like mental health of a person, a waiting period in order to do a thorough background check - mental health, outstanding warrants, on the terrorist list. Limiting the number of bullets per gun/clip, banning automatic weapons similar to machine guns (I am sure the police would like this). Lets use common sense.

Good luck in the future.....from a R.I. Democrat

I would just like to say thanks. Thank you for actually causing the race was dylann roof wanted. After the shooting in Charleston, my state came together. We rallied a cry of hope and togetherness, people had signs that said "You made us stronger!"

Then, you for some reason decide to racially split the state. What horrific timing you have. You know, I'm a Democrat and I would have voted for sheheen, but I didn't agree with him removing the confederate flag from the state house grounds. Do you know how many votes that got you?! And just to be able to say that you actually did something while here. You know, besides try to delay our health-care and turn down our stimulus checks.

I think you are creating a racial gap, and that's just sad. I cannot wait to see you leave.

After viewing the news today I had to take this time out to let you know that I am in such awe of you. I rarely am impressed by most, but your admirable gesture by announcing the removal of the confederate flag from the state capitol touched me heart, spirit and soul so very much that I am compelled to contact you. I know that your unpopular decision amongst the majority of your party, colleagues probably wasn't embraced. By you taking that brave stance.....sighing. I am speechless which never happens.

I am a democrat, my groom is a republican, my father is a democrat, my mother is a republican, my mother-in-law is democrat, my father-in-law is republican. Go figure, huh...LoL We all love each other regardless of our difference.

Let's just say that if you were in the running for president you would definitely get my vote along with many others! They don't call me the Piped Piperette for nothing. LoL

You're Beautiful, Intelligent, Compassionate, Articulate, Elegant, etc. and would make an EXCELLENT PRESIDENT!

With Much Admiration & Much Respect,

Toie [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I just wanted to thank you for having the courage to ask for the flag to be brought down and taken off our Statehouse grounds. I know that it is not a popular idea with many in our state; however, it was the right thing to do. Hopefully, the legislature will agree. I have written to my Senator and Representative, asking that they do so.

You have my vote Governor and I just wanted to tell you personally that your stand against this symbol of violence and hatred is correct in the eyes of God and in the eyes of most of your fellow Americans. I pray that your State can find a consensus on this pressing matter.

While I do not condone Mr. Roof's actions, in the absence of an officially declared state of war anyway, his comments are right on the mark and I actually admire his courage. I don't see him as a mentally deranged young man, just another one who could see the all too evident truths and didn't have the proper guidance in knowing how to deal with those truths. And as far as the removal of the Confederate Flag (Long Live It's Glory) you, governor, are just another pawn in the black race's (and their so misguided white supporters) hands as they continue to milk the issue of slavery and racism to get whatever they want. You may remove any physical objects that commemorate the South's Heritage and the blood that was shed by our ancestors (God Rest Their Brave Souls) but you will "NEVER" and I repeat "NEVER" change what we Southerners feel and know in our hearts! I would gladly stand and "Fight" today just as my ancestors did back then! Black culture has no place in our society, never has and never will! It's "DISGUSTING"!

Governor,

My heart goes out to you and the people of South Carolina. Recent tragic events call for action, but when my local news station reported your decision regarding the flag as "history in the making," I could only think of "history in the erasing."

Many african-americans have sought recognition of their ancestors as members of the confederacy, and to remove icons of that period in our nation's history in the name of race relations is offensive. Please take the time to consider the people who have a sense of family pride in remembering that the Civil War was not as much about slavery as many try to claim.

Thank you for your leadership.

As we up here unfortunately thought, you caved in to removing the Confederate flag for political reasons. Do you and your ilk truly feel that for one minute THIS move is going to lessen the REAL problem, which is hate crimes? Apparently history wasn't one of your strong subjects in school. However, we're glad that your not letting your education get in the way of your ignorance. We'll also bet that Roof's defense WILL use the "Insanity Reasons" way out.

Governor Haley,
I was so proud to be a South Carolinian this week.

This stems from your leadership regarding the flag removal.

This bold step confirms South Carolina as a key player in the global economy..... without disrespecting who we are and where we came from.

True leaders set direction and drive action on the most difficult issues.

The rest can (and should) be delegated.

Best regards,

Dear Gov. Haley,

I am troubled and saddened to hear that the racial extremists have finally succeeding in destroying our heritage and respect for those who died in our War between the States.

My family fought in that war and I respect and honor those that stood for their beliefs. There were the extremists in those years too and sadly that is what lead America into that tragic war.

We today can not be led by the race batters and hate mongers. We must stand strong are respect our history.

Taking down a symbol of our heritage only encourages the evil element of our society to wage on creating dissension and destroying our rich history of American spirit.

America lost more then the many who died on the battlefield. We lost out to the eventual centralization of power to the federal government. This loss was the very central issue that our Founding Fathers warned of developing when they established our Constitution. The separation of power. Since that war, we have witnessed the loss of this separation of power, step by step, that was fought for in our war for Independence!

Tragically , we have allowed these dearly fought freedoms slip away by not standing for basic belief in the people of America! It's always the political side that are defaulters, stripping our freedoms.

Please, consider your decision so it is based on freedom of integrity rather than the fear of shame.

We may have opinions of why each side stood for what they believed during the War between the States. Unfortunately, these issues still survive today...are we independent states or are we just a homogenized central government?

Thank you for considering my thoughts.

Sincerely,

David [REDACTED] Ret. [REDACTED]

Although I am a moderate conservative I am not a member of any party I did however vote twice for you. You have done an excellent job bringing jobs to this state and not cowering to union demands. That alone justified my votes. I am however especially glad to see that you are pushing for the flag to come down. As an almost lifetime resident of sc it never meant anything to do with racism for me, but it is time to move on.

I hope you will also consider tempering your judgement on the gay community. The Bible, in particular The New Testament spends a lot more time explaining how we are to treat others than it does judging them. I for one am very comfortable leaving that task to God. The plank in my eye is big enough to take most of my attention. Besides, is it really fair to pick and choose which legislation from Bible passages we push on others? I doubt if most pushing against equal rights themselves follow ALL of the bibles rules...shellfish or pork anyone?

I have gone off on a tangent...my purpose was to say good job with the flag and the rest of the senseless acts from last week...good job.

I had great hopes for your admin. and the future you might bring to the GOP. But I no longer feel that you will have my support. Your decision to support the wishes of an EXTREME MINORITY of connected people in your state and DC has disappointed me. When there is a chance that somebody will challenge you in a primary I will donate to that person and suggest the same to those that I know are active in politics. If enough people across the South feel like I do then we will have a chance to protect the heritage, history and culture of a valiant, honorable and noble people that defended their homes against the overreach of the Federal Gov't.

Dear Governor Haley,

I would like to ask that you please take charge of this issue quickly and call for the flags retirement to a museum. I am a retired US Naval Officer, resident of SC on off since 1980, and a small business owner. My family is southern and mother always a proud DAR member but it is time. Thank you for not sitting back and letting legislators set the agenda. This needs leadership, now. Best regards, Lee [REDACTED]

Ms. Haley,

You have a difficult job and I respect you and the Governor that you have been to our state and hope one day you will become more in our political groups. You have hard decisions to make regarding the Confederate flag and what to do. I want to say as a South Carolina citizen I understand the meaning behind the confederate flag, however I also understand how uneducated individuals or racists use it for their own propoganda. It does separate us although it is not supposed to and no matter what is said on facebook, the news, etc. it will continue to be seen negatively by so many.

I want to wish you luck in choosing the right decision for our State and know you will do what is best for us. I just thought throughout this time you need support for yourself, family and what you have done for our State.

Thank you and I hope this helps during the process. I truly hope you receive this.

Erica

The recent reversal of your, and other politician's, stance on the Confederate memorial is appalling. While I understand that the confederate flag is offensive to the uninformed and easily manipulated. There are some in this state who respect the lives lost while serving under it. This includes the lives of many black as well as whites. We as a group, have tried for years to include the ancestors of black heroes into our circle. you heard correctly, black confederates. Stories that have long been deemed unpopular to the NAACP way of thinking. By making the civil war black vs white, good vs evil, we can simplify and divide our current population. It is much easier to raise money for a fight than it is to raise emotions in peace. Our effort at inclusion and peace have been rebuked with hatred and violence. No, our confederate ancestors were not perfect. They were not the monsters you claim them to be either. Please stop humiliating me and my fellow southerners for the sake of politics. Keep the flag on the memorial where it belongs.

You seem to show the MEDIA more respect than your PEOPLE... WHY IS THAT???????

I fought and served to preserve our liberties, freedoms and rights... NOT so elected leaders would bow down to the sensationalism of the MEDIA's latest rant. If you can't find a pair, borrow some !!

Yours abandonment of your heritage for current political gain is nothing short of cowardice. If you had a problem with a Confederate memorial on state grounds, you should have said it during your run for governor. You cannot separate the flag from the men who died under it. Your rational in today's speech is only justification for caving in for political gain. How can you remove the flag from a memorial? I served in SC for 11 of 21 years and feel an allegiance to SC for that time. Please don't just blow with the current political wind. There is no honor there.

Conservatives are fed up with this countries direction and we need leaders that keep there word. We have to keep the rights of all people. Thank you for listening to me. I am ashamed of your call to strike the colors and I pray that your call will fail. Why?
 For the reason that this little ole Quaker who has enjoyed a life spent in the call for and the promotion of racial equality tells you that the messages I send - I SEND - when I consider the Confederate Battle Flag and Confederate Memorial Statues - is a message that I honor my ancestors who sacrificed life and fortune in defense of their families, their homes and their state.

It is mind boggling that those who died in defense of South Carolina should be treated so shabbily by your office.

Kindly read Robert Penn Warren's "The Legacy of the Civil War."

Consider that of the nearly 100 years as a nation that codified slavery, only five years of that slavery existed under the Stars and Bars. Would you strike Old Glory? Shame on you, shame on you and shame on you.

Dear Governor, I have never seen such insanity in our state when the Chief Executive would become involved in this NAACP sponsored Mob to Remove the CS flag from the Soldiers Monument where it is completely defensible. I am a descendant of numerous CS soldiers who fought and died for South Carolina. I took a lot of heat for supporting the compromise and even donating to the African American Monument. They said the NAACP would never be satisfied and it is clearly true. These are the very worse racists who have no scruples as to use this tragedy to further their agenda. Rest assured millions of us out here in the real world will hold every single legislator accountable at the ballot box. We are campaign workers, donors, the descendants of these brave men who have NOT moved away. What in the world are you and these others thinking that this symbol killed 9 people. My God this is utter insanity. J.T. [REDACTED]

I am strongly opposed to flagrant violations of church and state separation. This country was made great by its secular constitution. History teaches us throughout the ages horrific atrocities have been imposed by the church and religion. We do not need a theocracy. I'm painfully aware it is de rigueur to pray and display a belief in Jesus and prayer to garner a majority of votes here in South Carolina. However, I, like probably many sikhs, Jewish citizens, and numerous of other belief systems find the day of prayer in North Charleston offensive and frightening.

I do applaud your efforts in having the confederate flag removed from the Capitol building, however.

I voted for you because I believed you were a Christian and a Bible (Gods Life Map) following Christian. I am a Christian and pray for our Country, Government, family, and friends. You did a lot for the state to improve the economy and the educational structure. However, I am disappointed in your decision to remove the "Flag of Our Heritage" from the Capital. I have many black friends that I work with who are great people and support their families. Therefore I'm not racist.

If you are going to take "Our Heritage" away from us, and we should all be EQUAL; we need a "Caucasian College Fund", a "White Miss America Pageant" ETC...; and eliminate the NAACP! Lets be equal. My GRANDCHILDREN DEPEND ON IT!!

June 28, 2015, 11 AM

Dear Friends,

Ironically, this past month, as the western world celebrated the 800th Anniversary of the presentation of Magna Carta to the King of England by British Barons at Runnymede, government was dealt significant setbacks, both at home and abroad.

Laudato Si' and Magna Carta

Let's begin with the anniversary date of Magna Carta itself. On Monday, June 15, news broke, prematurely, regarding the contents of Pope Francis' Encyclical, Laudato Si', document was leaked to the world by an Italian media outlet.

The dystopic Encyclical confirmed the worst fears regarding the political nature of Pope Francis.

In Laudato Si', an arrogant Pope settles the climate change argument, once and for all, by stating that "global warming" is "man-made" and will end in complete catastrophe immediately, and collectively, by the nations of the world.

Fifty shades of former Vice President Al Gore, including his false predictions about the immediate dire consequences of global warming, abound throughout the document.

While Climate Change is a real phenomenon as old as our "Sister, Mother Earth," as the Pope calls our planet (wouldn't "Sister Earth" or "Mother Earth" be sufficient?), the disagreement among respected scientists regarding its causes and effects. Amazingly, the Pope refuses to acknowledge the skeptics of global warming--except to accuse them

...The worldwide ecological movement has already made considerable progress and led to the establishment of numerous organizations committed to raising awareness of the Regrettably, many efforts to seek concrete solutions to the environmental crisis have proved ineffective, not only because of powerful opposition but also because of a more Obstructionist attitudes, even on the part of believers, can range from denial of the problem to indifference, nonchalant resignation or blind confidence in technical solutions universal solidarity. ... - Laudato Si', Paragraph 14

The following links expound upon the Vatican's refusal to even listen to those members of the scientific community who hold opposing viewpoints:

<div data-bbox=)

Instead, the Encyclical speaks with such an authoritative voice on climate change that one might think that God, Himself, had dictated the document.

And, as if solving the puzzle of climate change isn't enough for one Encyclical, the Pope adds the issue of world poverty into the mix--strongly inferring that a redistribution nations to poor nations, must be accomplished in the very near future.

The developed countries ought to help pay this debt by significantly limiting their consumption of non-renewable energy and by assisting poorer countries to support policie sustainable development. The poorest areas and countries are less capable of adopting new models for reducing environmental impact because they lack the wherewithal to c processes and to cover their costs. We must continue to be aware that, regarding climate change, there are differentiated responsibilities. - Laudato Si', Paragraph 52

Pope Francis then eludes to the establishment of a world authority to oversee the wealth redistribution and ecological policy schemes that should be imposed upon sovereign

An interdependent world not only makes us more conscious of the negative effects of certain lifestyles and models of production and consumption which affect us all; more to ensure that solutions are proposed from a global perspective, and not simply to defend the interests of a few countries. Interdependence obliges us to think of one world w Laudato Si', Paragraph 164

This "one world with a common plan" notion, together with the Encyclical's blatant attacks on capitalism and economic growth (necessary to sustain the world's population) leftist politicians who seek to expand the role government in our lives--the exact opposite of the revolutionary notion of limited government found in Magna Carta.

The following is a link to the English Language version of Laudato Si':

http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/encyclicals/documents/papa-francesco_20150524_enciclica-laudato-si.html<

Bush III Presidential Announcement Coincides with Magna Carta Anniversary

When family matriarch, Barbara Bush, said there had been "enough Bushes" in the White House in reference to the idea of her son, Jeb, running for US President, so many relief.

The problem is, mama Bush caved--and Bush III announced for the Presidency on, you guessed it, June 15, 2015--the 800th Anniversary of Magna Carta at Runnymede.

Not surprisingly, Bush III never commented on the anniversary--perhaps because Magna Carta forced a monarchy to accept limitations on its powers.

In 1776, our nation's founders completely abolished monarchical reign over the United States. After serving two terms in office, George Washington set a precedent in 1796 refusing to run for a 3rd term--an election he almost certainly would have won.

That precedent held until Democrat Franklin Delano Roosevelt ran and won a 3rd and 4th term as President.

In 1951, the 22nd Amendment to the United States Constitution was passed--limiting a president to two terms in office.

Of course, the Amendment did not prevent immediate family members from holding the office in future years--thereby, giving a few families a chance to alternate control of government.

The idea that Jeb III could become president only 8 years after his brother, and 22 years after his father, seems to be another slap at the idea of limited government proposed. The election of three presidents from the same intermediate family is a throwback to the monarchical system of Old England. The same goes for notion of a Clinton II president.

Question: Will we have to suffer the spectacle of (George P.) Bush IV and (Chelsea) Clinton III running for President in the next decade?

Murders in Charleston

What can anyone say, that hasn't already been said, about a neo-Confederate sympathizer who targeted and killed nine African-American members of a Bible Study group in

The horrific nature of the crime, and the aftermath of forgiveness that emanated from the hearts of those who lost loved ones in the hateful attack, brought our nation to its knees.

POTUS & SCOTUS KO Congress and States

If all of this wasn't enough, the United States Supreme Court decided to decide for us--ruling that a bureaucratic interpretation of ObamaCare, in this case by the Internal Revenue Service, is more important than what the law actually said as written and passed by Congress--the representatives of the people--the third branch of government established by the United States.

In essence, the Judicial branch elevated the Executive branch at the expense of the Legislative branch.

The very next day, the court determined the definition of marriage for each of the 50 states without the Constitutional authority to do so. That authority, according to the US Constitution, belongs to the states.

In just two days, in two major decisions, the court trampled on the rights of the people to determine law through their elected representatives at the state and federal levels--against the notion Magna Carta and limited government.

For further insight on SCOTUS, please read the following opinion pieces:

<SUBJECT>Governor Haley's Speech 6/22/15 re removal of Confederate battle standard from Capitol grounds</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Governor Haley set an example for Republicans and other politicians across the country with her eloquent, moving public statement yesterday. I trust her initiative will be successful. South Carolina is achieving breakthroughs in the wake of tragedy that amaze the country. We are all thirsty for decency and bi-partisan moves to root out racism, poverty, ignorance and other stains on the American record. This is a day to remember, and Governor Haley has earned kudos for courage and bi-partisan initiative.

Please continue to move in the direction of justice and equity for all races in South Carolina by reversing moves to suppress the minority vote in the state and sharing initiatives with Rev. Pinckney's surviving colleagues in the Senate.

The impact of your initiative on the speaker of the house in Mississippi re flag removal shows what the powere of a good and courageous act can be.

Yours in Christ,
Gary [REDACTED]

I personally think by removing this part of the South's conservative historic past icon YOU do a disservice to us all. Pandering to social left voters is not worth the benefits.
