ABC 12 News at Four (News)

... and i forgive you." the judge set bond at 1 million dollars on the gun charge. roof admits to investigators he did it -- wanting to start a race war -- when he shot and killed nine people at the charleston a-m-e church wednesday..that's according to two law enforcement officials. south carolina governor nikki haley weighed in on the death penalty possibility -- on nbc's "today" show (gov. nikki haley/(r) south carolina) "this is a state that is hurt by the fact that nine people innocently were killed. we will absolutely want him to have the death penalty." the charleston community -- and nation -- is still reeling from this unimaginable crime. (rev. cornell william brooks - naacp president/ceo) "it is a hate crime and as such it is a crime perpetuated against the conscience of our country, the soul of the country." community members are now shifting their focus to healing and remembering ...
