believed should have been increased in the 1943-44 General Appropriation Act.

The Commission considered the retirement of indebtedness of certain State institutions as authorized in the Debt Retirement Act of 1943.
The Secretary was instructed to investigate and determine if any of the bonds of these institutions were callable, by whom the bonds are owned, and to determine whether or not any or all of these bonds can be bought or paid at a price that would be advantageous to the State or the institution and to report back to the Commission as soon as possible.

The Secretary presented the tentative financial statements showing a General Fund surplus of $4,811,748.52 as of June 30, 1943.

The Commission then adjourned.
