Thanks, let me know if you want to grab lunch one day or a late afternoon beverage. It was fun having you all involved with football!
Best, Liz

Gov. Nikki Haley Announces South Carolina Christmas Challenge Challenges South Carolinians To Perform Random Acts Of Kindness

COLUMBIA, SC – Governor Nikki Haley announced the South Carolina Christmas Challenge yesterday at the 47th Annual Governor's Carolighting. In recounting the numerous examples of South Carolinians reaching out to their fellow neighbors and lending a helping hand, the governor issued a statewide challenge to perform a random act of kindness during this holiday season.

"I want to challenge each and every family to do one random act of kindness. Whether it's having a soldier for dinner because they don't have a family nearby to go to, visiting a nursing home, or baking cookies for an elderly neighbor, each act of kindness can help affect our state for the better," said Gov. Haley. "If every family in South Carolina commits to doing this, we would have 5 million kind acts across our state. How special would that be?"

South Carolinians can participate in the challenge by committing at least one random act of kindness for a person in need – from giving a blanket to a homeless person or visiting a nursing home – anything that has a positive effect on South Carolina citizens and communities.

People can share their stories by posting them on the governor's Facebook page, which can be found here - www.facebook.com/NikkiHaley or tweeting them to the governor at @nikkihaley using the hashtag, #SCChristmasChallenge.
