Thank you Mungo Homes!

This month we were surprised with a generous gift of $5000 from Mungo Homes. The employees were given the opportunity to suggest organizations of their choice to receive this gift. A military couple within the company chose our charity for consideration. We are so delighted and grateful to have been chosen.

Pictured in front left is Will, a Hidden Wounds Veteran Ambassador who wanted to tell his story of how we were able to assist him and his family in their time of need. Will shared with Mungo Homes how important their support to our mission is to Veterans like him.

"Hidden Wounds was there for me when I needed help. Without their help I don't know where I would be right now." Will P.

You too can join Mungo Homes in lowering the suicide rate among our Veteran population and stigma of getting help. This is a team effort and we need your help! If you feel the calling to help heroes like Will you can do so by clicking HERE, the link below, or by sharing this message. Get in the fight!
