Hey to you, too, Katherine!

All is well on the island. As you know we are winding down a notch from peak season and the lines are not quite so crazy thank goodness.

The response to the SC Congressional Cup has been great! Is there any further word on participation of the Governor? I am holding two rooms at the Inn for Saturday and Sunday night.

To update you on our progress I am happy to say we have all nine members of our SC Congressional Delegation committed to attending. Boeing has joined in with us as a co-presenter of this event. Details are being worked out but I am told either Jack Jones or Ray Conner will be our keynote speaker at the dinner Sunday night. We have endorsements from Commerce, PRT, Agriculture and the SC Ports Authority. We hope to have the Governor attend and have a prominent role in this event. I am happy to discuss this with you all if you have any more questions.

This is a list of companies who have committed to date. We only have about 11 teams left out of the 40 total teams before we have to close the registrations.

Hey Leigh,

Steve Wilmot passed your contact information on to me. I understand you are looking for some information on the Congressional Cup. Below is a copy of the eblast that went out last week. In the upper right hand corner are links to all of the information you may need. I also have a running list of companies who have sent in their registration forms and those who have verbally committed. I will share that upon request since it changes daily. We have had a tremendous response thus far and are very pleased with the direction in which it is moving.

I am the designated staff contact for this event. If you or anyone else from your staff needs any further assistance please give me a call. My contact information is below.
