Subject: New Year's Resolutions for the new Congress

Friend,

We hope that you had a wonderful holiday season, and rang in the new year well!

This new year brings with it a new Congress, and there is much to be done to deliver results for hard-working Americans and their families. Leaders must come together from both sides of the aisle to collaborate and move our country forward!

This year, instead of personal resolutions, our team put together a list -- informed by your responses to our recent survey -- of priorities that encourage bipartisan cooperation in D.C.

RESOLUTIONS FOR THE 116TH CONGRESS:

Rein in the National Debt:

Washington continues to pass budgets with deficits that grow wider each year -- and add hundreds of billions of dollars to our national credit card's $21 trillion dollar balance! This irresponsible spending is unsustainable, and it puts the world's largest economy on fragile footing. Congress must take action to spend responsibly and pay down our mounting debt.

Grow the Economy:

When the market gets nervous, it's all-too-easy to follow suit. But America's best resource has always been our entrepreneurial drive and innovative workforce. By making smart investments in America's businesses and middle class, we can ensure our economy stays on track through 2019 and beyond.

Rebuild America's Infrastructure:

Leaders on both sides of the aisle speak to reinvesting in America's roads, bridges, transportation systems, and energy grid. But talk is cheap -- it's time to break ground! Congress must pass a comprehensive bill that will modernize our infrastructure.

Friends, these may not be your average New Year's Resolutions -- they aren't about hitting the gym or picking up a new skill. Instead, we're resolved to hold our leaders accountable to work together to move us forward.

We can't do it without your support, and can't thank you enough for sticking with us -- this year and every year!

Thanks for all you do,
- Center Forward
