Subject: Just Released: CFPB's Placemats in Spanish

Dear Colleagues,

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau launched a campaign in May to celebrate Older Americans Month and help prevent elder fraud and exploitation. We created a placemat with simple tips for avoiding common predatory consumer scams.

We are happy to announce that our placemat is now available in Spanish. Meals on Wheels America is helping us distribute these consumer protection placemats on meal trays nationwide. We would love your help too.

If you are interested in distributing these placemats to a senior center, meal program, or to loved ones, please visit our free publications website to place your order. (Under the "Special Populations" section).

You can read more about this effort on our blog.

Thank you!
