Henry and Travis are good on that date...trying to get a hold of Simpkins now.

James,
Can you see if March 7 will work?

Thanks!

I checked with Heather Anderson, our staff attorney on these bills, and she said that it will most likely be March 7th for the first meeting, but Mae Wilson hasn't posted the meeting yet. I'll check with Mae this afternoon if she is in the office. If she has left for the day, I will make a note to follow-up Tuesday morning.

Thanks.
Cindy

Katherine:

I've copied John and Erin to find out when a meeting is set. Both are out this afternoon. Cindy will check for you.

Chairman,
Please reference the email below.
The email is from Swati Patel (Governor's Chief Counsel) inquiring about a subcommittee meeting for Senator Hayes' ethics bills.
Is this request possible? I have also attached a side by side of the Commission's proposal and Hayes' bills.
Please call me if you have any questions.
Thank you,
Katherine

Katherine,
Can you please ask Senator Martin when a subcommittee meeting for Sen. Hayes' ethics bills (S. 346, 347, 338) is likely to be held? (BTW, the subcomm members are Rankin –chair, Massey, Hutto, Campsen and Malloy).

Generals McMaster and Medlock and Professor Simpkins want to testify on behalf of the SC Commission on Ethics Reform and all three are available next Tuesday morning and early afternoon. It would be great if the subcommittee could meet then, especially since we're getting close to March and these bills have a ways to go still.

I'm sure there will be a few subcommittee hearings, and they could testify at different times, but I think it would be great to have them all at the first hearing together if possible.

Let me know so I can reach out to them soon.
