Check out the awesome photo taken by park visitor Sue Ann Cassidy Tarkenton at Huntington Beach State Park just this week!

Sue

We spent a few glorious days at Huntington Beach State Park. We are never disappointed with all the wildlife we find in this park. This trip however, was EXTRA special. . . we were treated to an American Bald Eagle visit on Monday, April 2. He sat on top of one of the wildlife viewing huts on the causeway. He stopped traffic and stole the show from the baby gators for just a while. I ♥ our SC State Parks!

Barbara J Dickert Isn't it wonderful to still be able to see these beautiful birds in the wild or "sun bathing at our St Parks" instead of in a closed in cage in the Zoo. but atleast there nobody is shooting at them.
