Hey, let's castrate the rednecks and take away their guns. All you need to be a man in South Carolina is own many guns. Everything else that you need in life will come naturally as long as you have a gum. Education is secondary as long as have your gun. The bigger the gun, the bigger the man. Don't worry about national news, more guns are the answer. The answer to all of our ills is more guns. Guns are your manhood.
