Dear Ms. Haley,

Just wanted to congratulate you on your wonderful counter SOTU speech in which you nailed nearly every Democrat talking point. Wow, you solidified the sentiment of the opposition and carried gallons of water for the Establishment Republicans. Unfortunately, you are completely tone deaf just like the Establishment. People ARE angry. We're angry that race and ethnicity is now central to our entire society rather than content of character. We're tired of being called racist just because we disagree with the administration or want illegals to leave. We're angry that we have a govt. that attacks any opposition e.g. IRS and Lois Lerner. We're tired of regulations and a stagnant economy. We're angry that the President is a radical ideolog bent on fundamentally transforming America. We're angry that the Republican Senate and House candidates lied to us about what they were going to do to block Obama's agenda. Need I go on?!

If that wasn't bad enough you continue to double down on your talking points even to the trashing of nearly all the republican candidates....except strangely enough Jeb Bush. Ohhhhh, I get it, you are angling for VP spot if Jeb pulls this out of the fire. Good luck with that! Your future in the republican party is tarnished!

What the hell Nikki? Do you think you're so cute that people won't listen to your vapid comments? You're blinded by your bias towards immigration just because your parents immigrated. Well, good for them, no one is saying do away with immigration---LEGAL immigration. If you don't agree with Trump that we need a pause in Syrian invasion and control our borders then you're no better than the dems. and I'm amazed that you would put the American people at such risk. Your speech and subsequent appearances have solidified your RINO positioning in the minds of the voters.

I really hope that Trump or Cruz win as you won't have a snowball's chance in hell of becoming VP or any other position in the government if they do. That's really a shame as I had a very favorable opinion of you prior to that speech and the follow up interviews. Now, you are finished in my mind. So, enjoy your remaining tenure in SC.....first Sandford, then Graham, now you....is there something in the water down there? If you can't support the candidates then at least SHUT THE HELL UP and just take care of your redneck state!!

Sincerely,
Chris
