Session Shortening, Nuclear Industry, and Refugees -- Update from January 25 to February 1, 2016

The legislature returned to session three days a week this past January 12. I hope that you find this update helpful and informative. If I can help you with an issue, please let me know. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you in the South Carolina State Senate.

State Government News

Restructuring -- Shortening the Legislative Session : Last week, legislation (S.267) that I am sponsoring to shorten the legislative session gained approval from the Senate Judiciary Committee and now is on the full Senate's calendar. Currently, the General Assembly meets three days per week from the second Tuesday in January to the first Thursday in June. The legislation as drafted would require the legislative session to end one month earlier on the first Thursday in May. The bill may be debated on the Senate floor this week.

Restructuring -- State Superintendent of Education : Legislation is pending in the Senate that will allow the Governor to appoint the State Superintendent of Education (S.1017) as a cabinet appointee rather than be popularly elected. All six restructuring studies of state government since 1920 have recommended that the Superintendent of Education be appointed by the Governor to increase accountability, efficiency, and coordination in public education in South Carolina. I am co-sponsoring this legislation.

Nuclear Industry in South Carolina : Last Thursday, leaders from South Carolina's public utilities and SRS senior executives jointly presented information as to the nuclear industry in South Carolina. South Carolina's leadership in nuclear energy and the economic impact of SRS were covered. In addition, Savannah River National Lab detailed how it is leading innovation for national security and clean energy. To see materials from SCANA, go here; from Duke Energy, go here; from Westinghouse, go here; from SRNS and SRNL, go here; and from SRR, go here.

Refugee Legislation Advances : Last Wednesday, Congressmen Jeff Duncan and Mick Mulvaney testified before the State Senate General Committee on the refugee resettlement program. The General Committee advanced legislation to involve the State Law Enforcement Division in verifying that any refugees relocating into South Carolina are not a threat to the public. To see where the head of the FBI testified that our nation's ability to screen the refugees is not sufficient enough to ensure that a few of them are not potential terrorists, go here.

Public Hearing This Thursday -- Proposed Pipeline Legislation : The Senate subcommittee assigned the pending pipeline legislation will have a hearing in Columbia this Thursday, February 4 at 9:00 am in the Gressette Building of the State House complex. Senator Shane Massey and I are on the subcommittee. The pending bill seeks to protect the rights of private landowners where a private company seeks to exercise eminent domain. This is an issue for several residents of Aiken, Edgefield, and other counties whose property may be impacted by the proposed Palmetto Pipeline.
