Mike,
Thank you for the call yesterday. I want to introduce you to one of South Carolina's finest, Edwin McCain. He is a great friend of both the Governor and Michael Haley.
I have also included Mark Freeman on this email, he is the executive producer for the exciting show we discussed. This show is going to be a great opportunity to showcase the great state of South Carolina and our amazing businesses – like yours!
I hope you are able to connect to explore potential opportunities. Please let know if you need anything and thank you for all your support.

Tonight is the first election debate – please make sure to watch! You too, Edwin.
