Erica,

You are correct. Since the RFI is outside of the Procurement Code, you do not have to worry about communication (or meetings) with potential vendors during the response period from a legal perspective.

Hi Vicki,

We were able to officially release the Social Impact Bond RFI on SCDHHS' website today. Christian Soura asked me to check on legal issues regarding communication during the response period. Since this isn't a procurement, I didn't think there would be any issue but I wanted to double check. Do you see any issue with us communicating/meeting with potential respondents during the RFI response period?

Thanks so much!

-Erica
