South Carolina State Parks

at 0:30:01 on 1/13/2017 UTC · 🌐

No....it's not an alien. It's our brand new fishing light at Calhoun Falls State Park! Located under our newly-renovated fishing pier, this green light attracts microorganisms to the area, which in turn lure in bigger fish looking for an easy meal. Come down and experience the world-class fishing that Lake Russell has to offer! www.southcarolinaparks.com/calhounfalls

John Moon That's true too. I got one from this year still in my yard. It can be the first.

at 3:50:39 on 1/13/2017 UTC

Linwood Harris John Moon we could probably drive a truck through Spartanburg and load up?

at 3:52:23 on 1/13/2017 UTC

John Moon That might be worth looking into. The pier should be completed next month.
