Good afternoon Chaney,

While I'm sure Gov. Haley is especially busy with the new political appointment, we at National Geographic were very much hoping she might have a few moments this week for a brief interview on the latest Nat Geo documentary production the network is putting together on southern charm, culture and history.

Our host, Michael Ware, has been traveling across Alabama and is now in Charleston, South Carolina in an effort to tap into what makes up southern hospitality; and we'd certainly value even just a few moments of the governor's time, if she can find a bit of room in her schedule.

My name is David Ariosto, and I'm the senior producer of this series and am happy to answer any questions you might have. Please let me know if this is indeed a possibility.

Thank you much for your time.

Best,

David Ariosto
