

When the attending physician or midwife, nurse, father, householder, etc., should make this return. If a child is born dead, it must not be reported as a stillborn. No report is desired of stillbirths before the fifth month of pregnancy.