Matthew Graves Is this one of the National Historic Landmarks credible for Scavenger Hunt?

at 19:25:05 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Leah Boone Matthew Graves no, this isn't in Kings Mountain state park. It's in the national park.

at 19:49:41 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Michael Lewis If they would recognize the Patriots there, they don't!!

at 19:51:37 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Matthew Graves Leah Boone, that's what I was thinking, too. We accidentally submitted it for ours. Going to update with a Landmark inside state park next opportunity we get.

at 20:02:29 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Jennifer Lynn McClenny We've been to both! It's Awesome!

at 20:52:20 on 10/04/2020 UTC

John Buzzerio Michael Lewis: Now, that certainly makes a lot of sense... 🤔

at 22:01:07 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Doris Blair I visited there. I will be going again.

at 22:12:01 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Joan Mathews I thought Kings Mountain is in NC. That is what I have been told and think I have read. A boss even lived near there most of her life

at 23:25:20 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Joan Mathews Also Crowder Mountain is close. Have heard Kings has snakes more so than Crowder

at 23:26:34 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Ted Wolff Joan Mathews a great location to visit!

at 23:42:27 on 10/04/2020 UTC

Duvy Rockholt Joan Mathews The town of King's Mountain is in North Carolina. The battle site is in South Carolina about 10 miles away.

at 0:01:59 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Larry Lee Benfield The town is in North Carolina but the battlefield is in S.C. The lines of the States were fluid in those days and all of the Carolinas were there on the field and as far as from Tennessee.

at 0:03:21 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Broadus Pruitt I would love to move it

Todd Humphries Kings Mountain Battlefield in in Cherokee Country and the state park I'm in York county the Town of Kings Mountain is in N.C. cow pens Battlefield is also in Cherokee County.

at 1:52:34 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Cheryl L Livensperger Todd Humphries isn't Cowpens in Spartanburg County !!

at 2:30:25 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Ria Dakanay Great place!

at 11:16:39 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Todd Humphries Cheryl L Livensperger the town of Cowpens is in Spartanburg. It's 10 miles from the battlefield.

at 12:11:57 on 10/05/2020 UTC

David Doby A really great park.

at 13:59:12 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Chad Keith I worked there for 5 years and the scenery never got old. Two great parks!

at 15:10:40 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Cheryl L Livensperger Todd Humphries yea I live in Gaffney ! I hardly ever go up route 11

at 15:38:21 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Elaine Johnson Strobel We go to this park often.

at 16:46:40 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Joe Gibbs Tear it down. Ha

at 17:28:25 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Janice Griffith I love N. C. us

at 17:53:00 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Otti Travis I ♥ SC

at 20:38:19 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Patsy Sweatt Todd Humphries pretty

at 21:00:41 on 10/05/2020 UTC

George Jones Joan Mathews the town is in NC, but the State Park & National Battlefield are right across the state line in S.C.

at 23:26:50 on 10/05/2020 UTC

George Jones Joan Mathews a good number of the Patriot soldiers that died as a result of the battle are buried in the small country church cemeteries within 10 miles in any directions of the battlefield. Tory captives were all executed and buried on the battlefield in common graves

at 23:33:59 on 10/05/2020 UTC

Anne Freeman Gonna get back down there one day

at 12:09:27 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Thom Koontz Part of my young life was growing up down there. My Grandfather owned the Bear Den at the entrance to the State Park and at one time had a partial zoo. I own property adjoining the State Park where my Great Grandparents house once stood. The State Park is beautiful and I life guarded at Lake Crawford many moons ago. The Park is part of my life.

at 13:27:30 on 10/06/2020 UTC

George Jones Thom Koontz God Country; I grew up on Hwy 55 between McGill's Store & Clover. Been to the Battlefield & Lake Crawford MANY TIMES. I also remember the bear.

at 15:13:35 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Thom Koontz George Jones he actually had several bears over the years but one was an alcoholic :-). We were at McGill's store many many times and sure loved that ole country store. Most of my Mothers side are buried at Bethel!

Richard Owen Both a must visit.

at 17:28:29 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Faye Carter Beautiful!

at 18:54:40 on 10/06/2020 UTC

George Jones Thom Koontz I have ancestors on my Dad's maternal grandmother's side. They were Lemuel Andrews Sr & Jr, but ended up through weird census handwriting in the 1870's/80's becoming Anders. At one time they owned the property along the base of Henry's Knob and the land from TM Thomas Rd to what use to be Armstrong's Beer Joint and little store. By the time I came along all the Knob side of Hwy55 property had been sold to the Ford's & Commercialores. My parents were Grady & Peggy Jones. The houses that were on the property when I was growing up are both gone now, but the orange iron tractor wheel mailbox post is still there. We dug half way to hell and anchored it in concrete. Over intoxicated customers from Mr Armstrong's store kept turning around in our driveway and knocking down the mailbox. My dad took care of that problem

Thom Koontz George Jones the Kin from my Mothers side were McCarters and Graysons. When I was young I worked on my Grandfathers farm in his peach and apple orchards and fruit stand and also did a lot of bush hogging and other assorted chores. The ole Farm house was burned down not long after my Grandfather passed away. Sad because it was a beautiful ole Farm house with wrap around decks a huge barn and also peach and apple processing barns and sheds. I miss those simpler days.

at 19:26:11 on 10/06/2020 UTC

George Jones Thom Koontz Me too. My grandkids would probably end up in the psych ward if they had to spend one wee in my 1960/70's footsteps. Do you live in the Bethany, Clover or Bethel/ Lake Wylie area today?

at 19:33:52 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Thom Koontz George Jones no sir I live in Reems Creek near Weaverville NC but I still own land bordering the State Park so I get down that way often. Also one of my best friends lives in Kings Mountain. My friend and his Son's run the Cardinal Gin distillery.

George Jones Thom Koontz I live in Spartanburg now, but am familiar with the Weaverville area. I graduated from Mars Hill College. Small world. Enjoyed chatting with you. I'm headed your way this weekend to hook up with some MHC friends, bummer weather predictions though. Take care and look for the orang wheel mailbox next time you are down Clover way. All of my immediate family there are now deceased so I don't visit too often. Once again, enjoyed the chat

at 21:24:36 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Thom Koontz George Jones Thanks George Jones and ditto. I have a lot of friends that went to Mars Hill and one of my daughters graduated from there too. The hurricane Delta was just updated and appears it will go more West so the weekend might not be as bad as they were predicting. My Daughters went to North Buncombe high school where many of Mars Hills football players came from over the years. I also have friends living in Mars Hill. Safe trip to you and hope you have a Marvelous time. Still some decent restaurants in Mars Hill :-). Enjoy and take care.

George Jones Thom Koontz 🐦, like the one on the corner of Main St and the Marshall Hwy.

at 22:05:22 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Loretta Divine Just at Kings Mtn State Park today--beautiful.

at 22:12:01 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Tom Weber Been there. Very interesting.

at 22:39:06 on 10/06/2020 UTC

Douglas Lanier Just there a couple weeks ago very nice walking trails

at 0:11:57 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Elaine Mullinax Enjoy going when I can

at 3:45:43 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley Todd Humphries Right. I lived in Cleveland County for about 40 years. I now live in Cherokee County all together for about 20 years.

at 6:25:29 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley Douglas Lanier Last time I was there was back in 1965.

at 6:27:16 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley Joan Mathews After the battle the states were divided. Mountain park is SC & town is NC.

at 6:32:02 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley George Jones Where Furgerson (may be spelt wrong) was killed is where his grave lies!!!

at 6:34:52 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley Joan Mathews Town in NC named after it & battle ground in SC which is the mountain itself.

at 6:37:58 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Mike E Lowery Sr Great park.

at 16:19:00 on 10/07/2020 UTC

George Jones Thom Koontz 🐾, like the one on the corner of MainSt and the Marshal
at 17:51:47 on 10/07/2020 UTC

George Jones Lois Nalley yes, he was on the top of the ridge , mounted his horse and tried to make a break for it , but was shot. He was buried (as rumor has it) with his girl friend at the bottom of the ridge. I remember throwing rocks on his grave as a kid. His girlfriend was a Patriot spy who fell in love with him and the story I heard she ratted out his location and then went back to die with him. DOUBLE LOVE
at 18:01:28 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Linda Rastbichler Love this park and cowpens
at 20:18:55 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Russ Carter Awesome just to take a drive through
at 20:22:25 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Joshua Sutton Been there camped there before
at 21:52:47 on 10/07/2020 UTC

Jeanne Beach This is a wonderful park. The hike is pretty difficult at times but so worth it!! We bought our senior national park passes at Kings Mountain.
at 22:44:58 on 10/07/2020 UTC

John Sharp We were just there...

at 23:57:22 on 10/07/2020 UTC

James A Farrell Jr. Nice to see a monument that has not been destroyed by rioters
at 0:46:03 on 10/08/2020 UTC

Brian Allmon Shouldn't that monument be taken down too because most of the people that fought in the American Revolutionary War were slave owners Asking for a friend.
at 20:24:12 on 10/08/2020 UTC

Mary O'Mara Thanks Sue!!!❤️🙏
at 21:50:16 on 10/08/2020 UTC

John Sharp Of course, you already know Brattonsville is where the movie the Patriot was filmed.
at 22:01:08 on 10/08/2020 UTC

Eric Austin Awesome walk! I hiked other trails first but loved the history here!
at 2:06:08 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Lois Nalley George Jones Never heard about her being buried there. Just him.
at 2:12:40 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Pam Cutshaw-Moffitt I have pictures from the 80's from here.. Me on the steps.. Hiked for ever
at 3:08:39 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Gerald Tolbert We have been there twice once we took our children and a couple years ago we went back. Great history in this battle,most American soldiers came over the mountains from Tennessee and Western North Carolina,and this battle started the end for the British.

Hiram Ulysses Grant was at one time a slave owner, and was anti- semitic. Lincoln was a white supremacist, should any monuments of them be taken down.
at 12:06:48 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Bryan Payne Very nice park ...with camping and trails.. and a museum.
at 12:47:53 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Jean Patterson Deaton We better hurry before the idiots decide that don't like it and destroy it like they do everything else! Why don't we just start destroying whatever they have we have nothing because of them so why shld they!!!!

Judy Collins Allan Collins
at 16:03:00 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Brian Allmon Mark Howell Question why is Lincoln's second inaugural address carved on the wall at the Lincoln memorial in Washington DC and the first inaugural address isn't? There is plenty of room for it.

at 16:16:09 on 10/09/2020 UTC

Brian Allmon Mark Howell I would suggest going to The Lincoln Mythbusters page

Brian Allmon Karen Badger If the constitution of these here United States us reads from the time it was adopted and is still in affect today that a State can't be made out of a State and to do so is a constitutional violation. Question why did President Lincoln form West Virginia out of the state of Virginia in June 20 1863?

Bertie Jones My mom was taken there in her childhood with her teacher. The trails were very rough. Everyone threw a rock on ????? Grave. Help someone??? Always a great trip. Bert

at 13:41:04 on 10/10/2020 UTC
