Knowing how busy the Governor's schedule is... would this be something we could do a congratulatory letter for?
Just a thought.

Thanks, KV

Nicole,

Rep. Daning called to request a potential meeting with N and Jesse Babington who was named the overall best residential/commercial electrical apprentice in the nation at a national competition in April. He is the first person in South Carolina to win a National Craft Championship in any category. The competition was an intense two-day event consisting of written and practical hands on exams.

He said that he would work around the Governor's schedule but would really appreciate an introduction.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Haley

Haley,

This is the press release I talked to you about. Please remind the scheduler and Governor that this is a first for SC. In addition, an opportunity to show case an apprenticeship program sponsored by private industry to grow their own workforce. No government funding involved. They partner with Trident Technical College who provides space for the local annual competition that also includes high school students who are apprentices and being paid while they work. Every apprentice that completes the program has a job waiting for them.

Thank you,
Joe Daning
SC House Dist 92

Joe

Please share with the local delegation, house and senate members, and the governor's office. Also, please send to Tim Scott.

Thanks
