Subject: FW: Address Change Script

Just got this from Karen. Do you know anything about it? I wasn't at the last Admin. Team meeting because my computer nearly crashed.

Subject: Address Change Script

Afternoon ladies,

Last week at the admin team meeting, we were provided with a script for what DMV should say about address changes. Jan and Cheryl - could you make sure this gets added to the training (either as a participant handout / or as instructor material). Beth - could you make sure this gets to Sid , with the instruction that it goes to Highway Patrol. I think the admin team wanted more than just a press release but an instruction from David to Highway Patrol:

Here's the script:

" We will no longer be able to place an address/ name change label on the back of your driver's license because it will cover up vital information. Your address/ name correction will be updated on the Department's records, however , to update your driver's license you will have to apply for a renewal and pay the appropriate renewal fee"
