A poster for S'mores Night at Cheraw State Park. The background is a light beige with a subtle starburst pattern. At the top, the word "S'mores," is written in a large, bold, orange font, followed by "S'mores, more, more!" in a smaller, bold, orange font. Below this, on the left, is a light green oval containing the event details: "DATE: October 20, 2012", "TIME: 8:00 PM", and "WHERE: CHERAW STATE PARK CAMPGROUND". To the right of the oval is a cartoon illustration of a person with blonde hair, wearing a purple shirt and brown pants, sitting on the ground and roasting a marshmallow over a campfire. The campfire has orange and yellow flames. Below the illustration, the text reads: "Come enjoy some yummy s'mores with a ranger at the campground! You only need to bring your drink. No cost for the s'mores Donations are appreciated".
