CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH CAROLINA—1790 * *

We, the delegates of the people of the State of South Carolina, in general convention met, do ordain and establish this constitution for its government.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. The legislative authority of this State shall be vested in a general assembly, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

SEC. 2. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen by ballot every second year, by the citizens of this State, qualified as in this constitution provided.

SEC. 3. The several election districts in this State shall elect the following number for Representatives, viz:

Charleston, (including Saint Philip and Saint Michael,) fifteen members; Christ Church, three members; Saint John, Berkley, three members; Saint Andrew, three members; Saint George, Dorchester, three members; Saint James, Goose Creek, three members; Saint Thomas and Saint Dennis, three members; Saint Paul, three members; Saint Bartholomew, three members; Saint James, Santee, three members; Saint John, Colleton, three members; Saint Stephen, three members; Saint Helena, three members; Saint Luke, three members; Prince William, three members; Saint Peter, three members; All Saints, (including its ancient boundaries,) one member; Winshaw, (not including any part of All Saints,) three members; Kingston, (not including any part of All Saints,) two members; Williamsburgh, two members; Liberty, two members; Marlborough, two members; Chesterfield, two members; Darlington, two members; York, three members; Chester, two members; Fairfield, two members; Richland, two members; Lancaster, two members; Kershaw, two members; Claremont, two members; Clarendon, two members; Abbeville, three members; Edgefield, three members; Newbury, (including the fork between Broad and Saluda Rivers,) three members; Laurens, three members; Union, two members; Spartan, two members; Greenville, two members; Pendleton, three members; Saint Matthew, two members; Orange, two members; Winton, (including the district between Savannah River and the North Fork of Edisto,) three members; Saxe Gotha, three members.

SEC. 4. Every free white man, of the age of twenty-one years, being a citizen of this State, and having resided therein two years previous to the day of election, and who hath a freehold of fifty acres of land or a town lot, of which he hath been legally seized and possessed at least six months before such election, or, not having such freehold or town lot, hath been a resident in the election district in which he offers to give his vote six months before the said

* Verified by "The Constitution of the United States according to the Latest Amendments. Philadelphia. Printed by E. Oswald. 1796."

Also by "Cooper's Statutes of South Carolina," vol. I, pp. 184-197.

* This constitution was framed by a convention which assembled at Columbia, and completed its labors June 3, 1790. It was not submitted to the people for ratification.

judgment in such cases shall not extend further than to a removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State. The party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. The judges of the superior courts, commissioners of the treasury, secretary of the State, and surveyor-general shall be elected shall think proper, not beyond the fourth Monday in the month of November then ensuing.

*Amendment, 1860. See Journal of the Convention of the People of South Carolina. Held in 1860, 1861, and 1862. Together with the Ordinances, Reports, Resolutions, etc. Published by Order of the Convention. Columbia, S. C.: R. W. Gibbes, Printer to the Convention, p. 52.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. The judicial power shall be vested in such superior and inferior courts of law and equity as the legislature shall, from time to time, direct and establish.

The judges of each shall hold their commissions during good behavior; and judges of the superior courts shall, at stated times, receive a compensation for their services, which shall neither be increased or diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit or trust under this State, the United States, or any other power.

SEC. 2. The style of all processes shall be "The State of South Carolina." All prosecutions shall be carried on in the name and by the authority of the State of South Carolina, and conclude "against the peace and dignity of the same."

ARTICLE IV

All persons who shall be chosen or appointed to any office of profit or trust, before entering on the execution thereof, shall take the following oath: "I do swear [or affirm] that I am duly qualified, according to the constitution of this State, to exercise the office to which I have been appointed, and will, to the best of my abilities, discharge the duties thereof, and preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of this State and of the United States."

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeaching; but no impeachment shall be made unless with the concurrence of two-thirds of the house of representatives.

SEC. 2. All impeachments shall be tried by the senate. When sitting for that purpose, the senators shall be on oath or affirmation; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

SEC. 3. The governor, lieutenant-governor, and all the civil officers shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than to a removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State. The party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE VI

SECTION 1. The judges of the superior courts, commissioners of the treasury, secretary of the State, and surveyor-general shall be elected by the joint ballot of both houses in the house of representatives. The commissioners of the treasury, secretary of this State, and surveyor-general shall hold their offices for four years; but shall not be eligible again for four years after the expiration of the time for which they shall have been elected.

^aAmendment, 1860. See Journal of the Convention of the People of South Carolina. Held in 1860, 1861, and 1862. Together with the Ordinances, Reports, Resolutions, etc. Published by Order of the Convention. Columbia, S. C.: R. W. Gibbes, Printer to the Convention, p. 52.

SEC. 2. All other officers shall be appointed as they hitherto have been, until otherwise directed by law; but sheriffs shall hold their offices for four years, and not be again eligible for four years after the term for which they shall have been elected.

SEC. 3. All commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the State of South Carolina, and be sealed with the seal of the State, and be signed by the governor.

ARTICLE VII

All laws of force in this State at the passing of this constitution shall so continue, until altered or repealed by the legislature, except where they are temporary, in which case they shall expire at the times respectively limited for their duration, if not continued by act of the legislature.

ARTICLE VIII

SECTION 1. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever hereafter be allowed within this State to all mankind: Provided, That the liberty of conscience thereby declared shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

SEC. 2. The rights, privileges, immunities, and estates of both civil and religious societies, and of corporate bodies, shall remain as if the constitution of this State had not been altered or amended.

ARTICLE IX

SECTION 1. All power is originally vested in the people; and all free governments are founded on their authority, and are instituted for their peace, safety, and happiness.

SEC. 2. No freemen of this State shall be taken, or imprisoned, or disseized of his freehold, liberties, or privileges, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner destroyed, or deprived of his life, liberty or property, but by the judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land; nor shall any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, ever be passed by the legislature of this State.

SEC. 3. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power.

SEC. 4. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel punishments inflicted.

SEC. 5. The legislature shall not grant any title of nobility, or hereditary distinction, nor create any office the appointment to which shall be for any longer time than during good behavior.

SEC. 6. The trial by jury, as heretofore used in this State, and the liberty of the press, shall be forever inviolably preserved.

DEFINITIONS FOR NEW RACE AND ETHNICITY CATEGORIES

Race/ethnicity (new definition)

Categories developed in 1997 by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) that are used to describe groups to which individuals belong, identify with, or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. The designations are used to categorize U.S. citizens, resident aliens, and other eligible non-citizens. Individuals are asked to first designate ethnicity as:

- Hispanic or Latino or
- Not Hispanic or Latino

Second, individuals are asked to indicate one or more races that apply among the following:

- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Black or African American
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander
- White

Hispanic or Latino
A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.
American Indian or Alaska Native
A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
Asian
A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
Black or African American
A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander
A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
White
A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.
Nonresident alien
A person who is not a citizen or national of the United States and who is in this country on a visa or temporary basis and does not have the right to remain indefinitely. Note: Nonresident aliens are to be reported separately in the places provided, rather than in any of the racial/ethnic categories described above.
Resident alien (and other eligible non-citizens)
A person who is not a citizen or national of the United States but who has been admitted as a legal immigrant for the purpose of obtaining permanent resident alien status (and who holds either an alien registration card (Form I-551 or I-151), a Temporary Resident Card (Form I-688), or an Arrival-Departure Record (Form I-94) with a notation that conveys legal immigrant status such as Section 207 Refugee, Section 208 Asylee, Conditional Entrant Parolee or Cuban-Haitian). Note: Resident aliens are to be reported in the appropriate racial/ethnic categories along with United States citizens.
Race/ethnicity unknown
The category used to report students or employees whose race and ethnicity are not known.

RESOLUTION

Apologizing for the enslavement and racial segregation of African-Americans.

Whereas millions of Africans and their descendants were enslaved in the United States and the 13 American colonies from 1619 through 1865;

Whereas slavery in America resembled no other form of involuntary servitude known in history, as Africans were captured and sold at auction like inanimate objects or animals;

Whereas African-Americans continue to suffer from the consequences of slavery and Jim Crow—long after both sys-

Whereas the story of the enslavement and de jure segregation of African-Americans and the dehumanizing atrocities committed against them should not be purged from or minimized in the telling of American history;

Whereas on July 8, 2003, during a trip to George Island, Senegal, a former slave port, President George W. Bush acknowledged slavery's continuing legacy in American life and the need to confront that legacy when he stated that slavery "was . . . one of the greatest crimes of history . . . The racial bigotry fed by slavery did not end with slavery or with segregation. And many of the issues that still trouble America have roots in the bitter experience of other times. But however long the journey, our destiny is set: liberty and justice for all.";

Whereas President Bill Clinton also acknowledged the deep-seated problems caused by the continuing legacy of racism against African-Americans that began with slavery when he initiated a national dialogue about race;

Whereas a genuine apology is an important and necessary first step in the process of racial reconciliation;

Whereas an apology for centuries of brutal dehumanization and injustices cannot erase the past, but confession of the wrongs committed can speed racial healing and reconciliation and help Americans confront the ghosts of their past;

Whereas the legislature of the Commonwealth of Virginia has recently taken the lead in adopting a resolution officially expressing appropriate remorse for slavery and other State legislatures are considering similar resolutions; and Whereas it is important for this country, which legally recognized slavery through its Constitution and its laws, to make a formal apology for slavery and for its successor, Jim Crow, so that it can move forward and seek reconciliation, justice, and harmony for all of its citizens: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) acknowledges the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery and Jim Crow;

(2) apologizes to African-Americans on behalf of the people of the United States, for the wrongs committed against them and their ancestors who suffered under slavery and Jim Crow; and

(3) expresses its commitment to rectify the lingering consequences of the misdeeds committed against African-Americans under slavery and Jim Crow and to stop the occurrence of human rights violations in the future.

Pending debate,

The President announced that the morning hour had expired, and called up for consideration the unfinished business of the Senate of yesterday; and

The Senate resumed the consideration of the joint resolution (S. 16) proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States; and,

On the question, Will the Senate concur in the amendment made to the joint resolution in Committee of the Whole?

After debate,

On motion by Mr. Saulsbury to amend the amendment made in Committee of the Whole, by striking out the words "Article xiii, section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction. Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation;" and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

ARTICLE XIII.

SECTION 1. All persons shall have the right peaceably to assemble and worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience.

SEC. 2. The use of the public press shall not be obstructed; but criminal publications made in one State against the lawful institutions of another State shall not be allowed.

SEC. 3. The right of citizens to free and lawful speech in public assemblies shall not be denied. Access of citizens to the ballot-box shall not be obstructed either by civil or military power. The military shall always be subordinate to the existing judicial authority over citizens. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall never be suspended in the presence of the judicial authority.

SEC. 4. The militia of a State or of the United States shall not be employed to invade the lawful rights of the people of any of the several States; but the United States shall not be hereby deprived of the right and power to defend and protect its property and rights within the limits of any of the States.

SEC. 5. Persons held to service or labor for life, in any State under the laws thereof, may be taken into any Territory of the United States south of north latitude 36° 30', and the right to such service or labor shall not be impaired thereby, and the Territorial legislature thereof shall have the exclusive right to make and shall make all needful rules and regulations for the protection of such right, and also for the protection of such persons; but Congress or any Territorial legislature shall not have power to impair or abolish such right of service in the said Territory while in a Territorial condition without the consent of all the States south of said latitude which maintain such service.

SEC. 6. Involuntary servitude, except for crime, shall not be permanently established within the District set apart for the seat of government of the United States; but the right of sojourn in such District with persons held to service or labor for life shall not be denied.

SEC. 7. When any Territory of the United States south of north latitude 36° 30' shall have a population equal to the ratio of representation for one member of Congress, and the people thereof shall have formed a constitution for a republican form of government, it shall be admitted as a State into the Union, on an equal footing with the other States; and the people may in such constitution either prohibit or sustain the right to involuntary labor or service, and alter or amend the constitution at their will.

SEC. 8. The present right of representation in section two, article one, of this Constitution shall not be altered without the consent of all the States maintaining the right to involuntary service or labor south of latitude 36° 30,' but nothing in this Constitution or its amendments shall be construed to deprive any State south of the right of said latitude 36° 30' of abolishing involuntary servitude at its will.

SEC. 9. The regulation and control of the right to labor or service in any of the States south of latitude 36° 30' is hereby recognized to be exclusively the right of each State within its own limits; and this Constitution shall not be altered or amended to impair this right of each State without its consent: Provided, This article shall not be construed to absolve the United States from rendering assistance to suppress insurrections or domestic violence, when called upon by any State, as provided for in section four, article four, of this Constitution.

SEC. 10. No State shall pass any law in any way interfering with or obstructing the recovery of fugitives from justice, or from labor or service, or any law of Congress made under article four, section two, of this Constitution; and all laws in violation of this section may, on complaint made by any person or State, be declared void by the Supreme Court of the United States.

SEC. 11. As a right of comity between the several States south of latitude 36° 30' the right of transit with persons held to involuntary labor or service from one State to another shall not be obstructed, but such persons shall not be brought into the States north of said latitude.

SEC. 12. The traffic in slaves with Africa is hereby forever prohibited on pain of death and the forfeiture of all the rights and property of persons engaged therein; and the descendants of Africans shall not be citizens.

SEC. 13. Alleged fugitives from labor or service, on request, shall have a trial by jury before being returned.

SEC. 14. All alleged fugitives charged with crime committed in violation of the laws of a State shall have the right of trial by jury, and if such person claims to be a citizen of another State, shall have a right of appeal or of a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States.

SEC. 15. All acts of any inhabitant of the United States tending to incite persons held to service or labor to insurrection or acts of domestic violence, or to abscond, are hereby prohibited and declared to be a penal offence, and all the courts of the United States shall be open to suppress and punish such offences at the suit of any citizen of the United States or the suit of any State.

SEC. 16. All conspiracies in any State to interfere with lawful rights in any other State or against the United States shall be suppressed; and no State or the people thereof shall withdraw from this Union without the consent of three-fourths of all the States, expressed by an amendment proposed and ratified in the manner provided in article five of the Constitution.

SEC. 17. Whenever any State wherein involuntary servitude is recognized or allowed shall propose to abolish such servitude, and shall apply for pecuniary assistance therein, the Congress may in its discretion grant such relief, not exceeding one hundred dollars, for each person liberated; but Congress shall not propose such abolishment or relief to any State.

Congress may assist free persons of African descent to emigrate and civilize Africa.

SEC. 18. Duties on imports may be imposed for revenue, but shall not be excessive or prohibitory in amount.

SEC. 19. When all of the several States shall have abolished slavery, then and thereafter slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, shall never be established or tolerated in any of the States or Territories of the United States, and they shall be forever free.

SEC. 20. The provisions of this article relating to involuntary labor or servitude shall not be altered without the consent of all the States maintaining such servitude:
