What's the deadline here? Is he working on a story today?

Subject: Chairman McKinney

Chaney,
Last week Sen. Leatherman held up McKinney's confirmation to the ports authority. I'm checking to see if Gov. Haley has any comment on this since she appointed McKinney. Does she believe Leatherman's actions are the result of any dissatisfaction with McKinney? Or is Leatherman trying to make some kind of political statement and, if so, what would that be. Is the governor satisfied with the job McKinney is doing on the ports authority board?
Thanks
David
