

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, our country has been blessed with courageous men and women who willingly answer the call to protect and defend our nation and to help secure peace for people around the world; and

WHEREAS, the 24th Infantry Regiment was established in 1869 as a segregated, African American Regiment with members serving during times of peace and conflict including the Indian Wars, the War with Spain, the Philippine Insurrection, the Mexican Expedition, World War II, and the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, 24th Infantry Regiment Day provides an opportunity to honor the men who prevailed with courage and faith as they fought to advance the cause of liberty for others in an atmosphere of discrimination and the reality of segregation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 19, 2015, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the veterans of the 24th Infantry Regiment and their families for their courage and sacrifice in the defense of our country.
