What is scatology you ask? It's the study of scat of course! And if you've always wanted to be a scatologist, today is your lucky day! Join us for this hands-on, in-depth study of animal scat as we find out not only what animals live on the park, but also what they eat! 🐿️ 🐿️ 🐿️ 🐿️ This children's program is designed for ages 6 and older and adults must accompany them. Registration is required and space is limited. For more information or to register please call Sesqui State Park at (803) 788-2706 or email Stacey Jensen at sjensen@scprt.com. *This program includes the use of chocolate, peanuts and peanut butter, so please notify us of any food allergies in advance. Saturday, 9/11 from 10 am – noon
Sesquicentennial State Park
$10/child
$6.50/child with park passport
Register by 5 pm, Friday 9/10
