So here is an update:

Duane has decided he doesn't want to come to the game after all.

Thinking we could invite Randy Bunch, HR director and donor to state parks. He is with Bosch and has been on the FGI invite list in the past.

DB is on a fishing trip this weekend and my bro and sister in law are in town for the game. So I could possible use 3 if that was allowable.

Or I can ask Lou if he can think of anyone else to invite and maybe have Lou and His wife go to the box as hosts to whoever we invite.

Thoughts? Heading alto a funeral today so will be in the car after 9am if you want to chat!
