Subject: CSG eCademy: Federalism and the U.S. Judicial Branch, Nov. 10

The American judicial system is complicated. How does a case get to the United States Supreme Court? Why are some cases heard in federal court and others in state court? Why do courts refuse to decide some issues? This free CSG eCademy webcast will feature Lisa Soronen, executive director of the State and Local Legal Center, and Paul Clement, a partner at Bancroft PLLC and former U.S. solicitor general who has argued more than 75 cases before the U.S. Supreme Court. The presenters will explain the basics of how our court system works and how the decisions of this complex judicial system impact state government.
