---

Hi Everyone.

I hope that the Governor's One SC grant project visits have gone well.

Mark Rapp, the 2015 featured artist in the Harbison Theatre at Midlands Technical College HT@MTC Performance Incubator, has composed a piece of music to recognize the trials and triumphs during and after the devastating flooding last October. He sent the following email to Tracie Broom and Chloe Rodgers, our Flock & Rally PR partners:

Hi All,

Hope all is well. I thought you might appreciate this... I composed a piece of music to recognize the trials and triumphs during and after the devastating flooding in South Carolina in Oct '15. With the 6-month anniversary this month, I'm hoping this gospel-infused jazz song is welcoming and encouraging to all. Please do share if you like it:

I was moved by the video and 'tweeted' this message today: 6 months after SC's floods @markrappmusic, A Water Be Still, shows our trials & triumphs-http://markrapp.com/water-be-still - Please Give! #OneSC Fund

Perhaps we can find a way for the Governor and her advisory team to use the inspiring music to promote the One SC fund. Donations have slowed since the $157.3million FEMA grant was announced. Dana Fulmer and I are working on a social media strategy to promote One SC during the 24-hour online Giving Days that will take place on May 3rd. She and I look forward to meeting with you before April 21st to finalize the plans.

Thanks for your help!

Cheers!

PS

This is my baby... <http://colajazz.com> synergizing and organizing the scene around here. We recorded 27 musicians making up 13 bands to create the first ever ColaJazz vol. 1 CD and we'll do this each year. We have artist profiles, an events calendar, streaming the CD and more...
