Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the National Federation of Press Women (NFPW) was founded in 1937 to provide a means of communication between women writers, facilitate a common voice on national issues, and advance the professional standards of press women; and

WHEREAS, pursuing careers that span the field of communications, the professional women and men of NFPW work in areas including electronic and print journalism, public relations, advertising, freelance, graphic design, digital media, marketing, photography, education, and publishing; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Federation share a commitment to the highest standards in communications, the protection of First Amendment Rights, professional growth, the next generation, and networking; and

WHEREAS, the Carolina Spirit 2014 National Federation of Press Women Conference in Greenville will introduce attendees to realistic and practical tools that can be helpful in the continuing transition into today's ever-changing world of communications.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 1 - 6, 2014, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together in welcoming the members of the National Federation of Press Women to our state.
