Subject: Questions for goivernor

Chaney and Rob: I realize the governor has probably been beseiged with requests for interviews. If there is any way for me to talk with her at your office or by phone, here are a few questions I'd like to ask that our readers are asking us:

1. Why would she want to take on an ambassadorship like this where the deck seems to be rigged against the U.S.? As you may know, the United Nations has a lackluster reputation here.
2. What are her plans, subject to Senate approval, to move to NYC? Will the family go with her? Or will she be commuting?
3. What might they do with their home in Governor's Grant?
4. How will this appointment help her with her own political aspirations?

Please let me know. Our readers are big Nikki Haley fans.
