I'm fine with the quote, but I think you're right. Let's just ask them to strike the last sentence.

Hi Beth. I hope all is well. Our veterinary side of our business wanted to send out our own press release to our business partners and veterinarians and trade magazines. See attached. Can we obtain the Governor's Office approval since we are using the quote from Governor Haley. The marketing folks here took her quote from the Commerce press release but also included the statement from Facebook and her comments. Just let me know how we can proceed?

(See attached file: Press Release for Nikki Haley.doc)

Also I have several pictures and video clips. How many would you like? I think the best way is to mail you them on a USB thumb drive (too many to email)?

Thank you Beth!
