All of our parks are open, but we have sadly had to cancel some programs & close nature centers. But don't worry, we're going to offer some virtual programs here! Tune in tomorrow 3/18 at 11:00 am when Ranger Megan from Hunting Island goes LIVE on Facebook with some of her nature center friends! Don't miss it!

Janice Brown South Carolina State Parks I have a serious question. Why are you encouraging travel? Travel is the prime way to spread this virus throughout the country. People pull into gas stations in multiple communities and states. Touching pumps. Going into convenience stores, grocery stores. It's insane and will lead to widespread cases.
