A sweltering 8 degrees in my neck of the woods! Who can beat that? Post a pic of YOUR thermometer at a lower temp than 8 degrees in THIS thread. The lowest temp gets a prize pack! You have until 9 a.m.

Kathy Schoenberger Malpass 6 degrees here in Asheboro, NC.

Tammy Nevills Aw, no fair!! I don't have a thermometer, and my truck doors are frozen shut, so I can't the one in there. Oh well, lol! Anyway, my current temp here in Indiana is -9 with a winchill of -30 and I have about a foot of snow on the ground (the good news is, I don't think I can get to work again today :)). Enjoy your 8 degrees, Lol!

Cathy Robbins It's 5 in Greensboro now, was down to 4 earlier. Didn't post a picture since there are lower temps being reported. BUT how many of you have to go stand out in this freezing weather for an hour, getting kids across the street? Yep, that's right, my fiance and I both are school crossing guards, getting ready to head out now in this -7 wind chill weather!!
