

School Bus Runs From Gonzales Gardens Set To Begin March Tenth

Inauguration of a bus service for children of school age of enlisted men who live in the Gonzales Gardens was announced by Fort Jackson officials yesterday. The service will start March 10.

Buses, under supervision of military police, will assemble at the administration building of the apartments and proceed to Taylor, Wardlaw, Schneider and St. Peter's schools and to Dreher, Columbia, University and Ursuline high schools.

All children must ride in the buses to which they will be assigned. Only cost for the service will be for gasoline and oil consumed.
