Our thanks to Kat for this tip.

One of my UK friends, who is not a Christian but respects Christians and is interested in Christian thinking, asked me if Merkel's policy of opening the borders is Christian.

My response:

With some exceptions, most politicians who talk of applying Christ's teachings to politics are nothing but sly manipulators.

Such politicians will invariably twist the scripture to suit themselves. The scriptures are intended for individuals as a means of establishing man's relationship with God. "Christians," from the early Protestant heretics to Pope Francis, have made the mistake of trying to establish the Kingdom of God on earth -- usually by manipulating their "Christian" constituents by twisting the scriptures.

This runs counter to Jesus' teachings. Once He was asked by some sly religious leaders when the Kingdom of God would come and He said

Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. Luke 17:21

The equivalent word for within here is ambiguous in the Greek because it can also mean among. Which meaning was intended is not clear, but we can infer from this that Jesus did not advocate establishing the Kingdom of God by political means.

So, while many Americans are easily swayed by politicians who cite scripture, and though it is certainly good to elect officials who follow Biblical teachings in their own lives (because they will tend to be honest and do what is morally right, at least most of the time), all attempts to establish a "Christian" government per se have failed. After all, such is impossible to define and will invariably fall prey to political correctness, leading to the opposite of the intended effect. "Christians" like Merkel and also Mr. Bersaglio in Rome are twisting the scriptures to suit their dangerous ideological fancies and weaken public security. They are perfect examples of why the best government, while being administered by people of good character preferably forged by Judeo-Christian principles, is separate from religion.

Some will use the abortion issue to argue otherwise, but all cultures and religions reject abortion, which is therefore not a specifically Christian issue, contrary to popular belief.

Our focus needs to be on the task of keeping our public life and our society free from influences that undermine and destroy the culture of faith. The New World Order is frankly anti-Christian, which is why they want to enshrine gay marriage in law and introduce mass immigration of Muslims. It is also an important reason why US military policy invariably leads to the death of Middle Eastern Christians (another important reason being Washington's groveling to the Saudis).

A predominantly Christian society would be an effective countermeasure, and indeed, the West had a Christian bedrock at one time. But Western "Christianity" has been emasculated and distorted precisely by the officials who were tasked to take a neutral stance. Instead they -- particularly those who feign piety -- are actively destroying Christian culture.

We are reaping the results.

Don

Catholic Church Facilitates Foreign Invasion As Paid Agitator

In an NTEB Special Report, we have recently received information that the Catholic Church received payments totalling $79,590,512.00 <<http://www.usccb.org/about/financial-reporting/upload/financial-statements-2013-2014.pdf>> to facilitate the flow of undocumented and illegal immigrants into the United States in 2014. This is six million dollars more than they were paid in 2013. Now you know why Pope Francis is so eager to push Obama's insane flood of illegal migrants, he's getting paid millions to do it!

In the face of President Obama's veto threat, the House passed a bill to slow Syrian refugees. But the Republican Congress also has the power to hold hearings into the millions of taxpayer dollars being funneled through Catholic and other church groups <<http://canadafreepress.com/article/76920>>to bring them here. Many Catholics and non-Catholics alike would like to know how "religious compassion," using federal money, is increasing the potential terrorist threat to America.

You may recall that Pope Francis promoted the Obama administration's pro-immigration policies during his visit to the U.S. Left unsaid was the fact that the American branch of the Roman Catholic Church is getting millions of taxpayer dollars to settle refugees. According to their financial statement

<<http://www.usccb.org/about/financial-reporting/upload/financial-statements-2013-2014.pdf>> for 2014, the latest year for which figures are available, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops received over $79 million in government grants to provide benefits to refugees.

Ann Corcoran's Refugee Resettlement Watch website notes

<<https://refugeeresettlementwatch.wordpress.com/2014/03/30/syracuse-refugee-group-buys-catholic-church-will-be-converted-to-a-mosque/>> that Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church in Syracuse, New York, was closed down by the Catholic Church and has been leased to an Islamic society which renamed it Mosque Of Jesus The Son Of Mary.

“There are slim copper crescents where, for 100 years, there had been crosses,” reports

<http://www.syracuse.com/news/index.ssf/2015/08/from\_church\_to\_mosque\_syracuse\_islamic\_group\_cuts\_crosses\_tries\_to\_connect\_to\_n\_e.html> Marnie Eisenstadt of the Syracuse Post-Standard and Syracuse.com. She adds, “The six crosses were removed and replaced at the end of June. Four of them were massive: 600 pounds of concrete each, and more than 4 feet tall. The step was the last, and most visible, in the building’s change from church to mosque.”

The situation is even worse in Europe, where Islam is replacing Christianity as the dominant religion.
