Today we are thankful for the men & women of the SC State Park Service that keep the gates open each & every day of the year -- so our park visitors can enjoy! To all of you who work in our parks, thank you for your service! #Thankful

Jon Navion Yes, thank you, one and all. I have never met a ranger that wasn't concerned for their park or the people that visit the park! You all do a wonderful job with such little resources!
