Thank you for contacting me with your recent e-mail. This is an automatic response to let you know that your message has been received.

Your comments and concerns are important to me and I will read your e-mail personally. However, due to the volume of e-mails received, I may not be able to respond to each message personally. If you did not include a postal address with your original message, please resend your message with a postal address.

Further, due to the fact that we are not always in legislative session, it could be several days before I read your e-mail. Therefore, if your message is time sensitive or a highly important matter, you are requested to call my office at (803) 212-6220 or write me at P.O. Box 142, Columbia, South Carolina 29202.

Please know that I appreciate your taking the time to contact me and I value your input. It is an honor and privilege to serve as State Senator for the citizens of Oconee and Pickens Counties.

Warmest Regards,

Thomas
