WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — Hillary Clinton's top adviser said the FBI is investigating Russia's possible role in hacking thousands of his personal emails, an intrusion he said Donald Trump's campaign may have been aware of in advance. The assertion from Clinton campaign chairman John Podesta would amount to an extraordinary link between Russia and the Clinton campaign.

Unshackled, Trump unleashes aggressive attacks on own party

WASHINGTON (AP) — The "shackles" gone, Donald Trump stepped up his fierce attacks on his own party leaders to teach Republicans who oppose him a lesson and to fight for the presidency "the way I want to." "I'm just tired of not being able to win from leaders of the party he represents on the presidential ticket, Trump said Tuesday evening on Fox News Channel's "The O'Reilly Factor."

Young voters not swayed by Bill Clinton's history

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ignoring his own sexually aggressive predilections, Donald Trump wants voters to see Bill Clinton as a scandal-plagued cad whose history with women should disqualify Hillary Clinton from the presidency. The argument seems to resonate with America's youngest voters, who know the 70-year-old former president as a figure out of control. Trump doesn't seem to care about his Oval Office affair with Monica Lewinsky or other marital infidelities.
