Respectfully submitted;

On this date the 12 of November, 2015

Armando D Zulueta demands at the hearing be treated with dignity, respect, and without bias by Hearing Presiding Attorney S Allan Hills. SOUTH CAROLINA SUPREME COURT'S OFFICE OF THE DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL takes very seriously such misconducts, miscarriage of justice at a Hearing.

Conclusion.

A judge must avoid lending the prestige of judicial office for the advancement of the private interests of others.

Commentary:

Expressions of bias or prejudice by a judge, even outside the judge's judicial activities, may cast reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially as a judge. In this and other Sections of Canon 4, the phrase "subject to the requirements of this Code" is used, notably in connection with a judge's governmental, civic or charitable activities. This phrase is included to remind judges that the use of permissive language in various Sections of the Code does not relieve a judge from the other requirements of the Code that apply to the specific conduct. The prohibition against behaving with impropriety or the appearance of impropriety applies to both the professional and personal conduct of a judge. B. A judge shall not allow family, social, political or other relationships to influence the judge's judicial conduct or judgment. A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interests of the judge or others; nor shall a judge convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the judge. A judge shall not testify voluntarily as a character witness. (THIS RULE SQUARELY APPLIES TO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR BEVERLEY JAMES WHO SHARES A SEAT AT THE GREENVILLE LIBRARY'S BOARD OF TRUSTEES TABLE WHILE THE HEARING IS CONDUCTED. DIRECTOR JAMES IS A DEFENDANT).

(3) interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties

A. Extra-Judicial Activities in General. A judge shall conduct all of the judge's extra-judicial activities so that they do not:

(1) cast reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially as a judge;

(2) demean the judicial office; or

CANON 4 A JUDGE SHALL SO CONDUCT THE JUDGE'S EXTRA-JUDICIAL ACTIVITIES AS TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF CONFLICT WITH JUDICIAL OBLIGATIONS

Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by judges. A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. A judge must therefore accept restrictions on the judge's conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly.

In addition, presiding the hearing Attorney Hills shown bias against Armando Despaigne Zulveta that benefitted Executive Director Beverley James. Presiding Hearing attorney Hills acted as Executive Director Beverly James's lawyer and also, my prosecutor and judge positions combined. He was there protecting, speaking on Director James' behalf in violation of:

Commentary:

A. A judge shall respect and comply with the law* and shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

A JUDGE SHALL AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY IN ALL OF THE JUDGE'S ACTIVITIES

CANON 2

A. An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining and enforcing high standards of conduct, and shall personally observe those standards so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary will be preserved.

A JUDGE SHALL UPHOLD THE INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY
