

“REMEMBERING OUR FALLEN”

April 20 through May1, 2015

Lexington, SC: A very emotional exhibit, “Remembering Our Fallen,” is a stark reminder of the ultimate sacrifice made by 89 Fallen from South Carolina killed in The War on Terror while wearing our country’s uniform in a war zone. The photo display, which includes military and personal photos of each of South Carolina’s fallen, is traveling throughout the state and will be coming to Lexington County, home of eight of the Fallen.

The exhibit was created by Bill & Evonne Williams of Patriotic Productions, Omaha, NE and is sponsored by Bellevue University and Lexington County.

Warriors of the 21st Century are professionals who volunteered to join the United States Armed Forces. They grew up in the shadow of September 11, 2001, a defining moment for most of them. Many have endured multiple deployments and most return home. Some do not.

“Remembering Our Fallen” was created to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice in the Iraq and Afghanistan wars. Its legacy will be that these men and women will never be forgotten and that their names will be remembered and spoken.
