APPENDIX E

HISTORICAL REVIEW RESOURCES

1. Source of Evidence: Legislative Black Caucus

Date of Evidence: October 12, 1988

Nature of Effort: Hearing

Reasons for Effort: Barriers to full minority participation in the South Carolina Department of Highways and Public Transportation's Set Aside Program.

Problems Encountered: More than 20 persons presented testimony associated with the implementation of the Surface Transportation Act. Examples of fraud, abuse and waste cited to include: Underpaid estimates, over inspection by field engineers; non responsiveness of the SCDOT of Highways 7 Public Transportation; insensitivity of field engineers.

Results of Effort: Caucus requested a Federal investigation and financial audit of the SCDOT in letter of November 17, 1988 to The Honorable John W. Matchner, Inspector General of U.S. DOT, 7007th Street, S.W. Washington, D.C. The correspondence also requested advice as to the next step the USDOT could take in assisting the Caucus to implement a fair and equitable law that "will benefit, not hinder, the development of minority businesses." Representative Juanita M. White chaired the Legislative Black Caucus. Representative John W. Matthews, Jr. chaired the economic development committee.

2. Source of Evidence: Legislative Black Caucus File

Results of Effort: Letter from Chair Juanita White and Economic Development Committee Chair John W. Matthews, Jr. to Mr. Joe G. Rideoute, Executive Director of SC Highways & Public Transportation. Context #1. Thanks for participating in hearing and confirmation of Department's willingness to work with Caucus and minority contractors in an effort to make the Set Aside program function in a more effective manner.

A. Recommends ways/strategies that the entities could jointly work on together to develop businesses. Seven recommendations are:

- establish a system that allows WBEs to bid against WBEs and DBEs to bid against DBEs.

- When the prime contractor's bid is read, the DBE/WBE subcontractor's bid should also be read (in an effort to stop prime contractors from renegotiating with DBEs/WBEs).
- Include in the special provisions of a contract a statement to the effect of all quotes listed by DBEs should include area of work, amount of work and dollar value of work.
- Provide that the majority of the 5% Set Aside for DBEs to be utilized in prime contracting opportunities.
- Develop and implement a program that demonstrates through action the support of the spirit and letter of the law in developing minority businesses.
- Assign an engineer within the SCDHPT with the specific duties of technical assistance in minority contractors.
- Develop a dollar amount limit for such contractors participating similar to limits placed on prime contractors.

Nature of Effort: Bill S521(Proposed)

Reasons for Effort:

Problems Encountered:

Results of Effort: To amend the Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, by adding Section 57-11-95 so as to require that not less than ten percent of total state highway funds contracted for construction during a fiscal year must be expended with small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals and to require that not less than three percent of total state highway funds contracted for construction during a fiscal year must be expended with firms owned and controlled by non-disadvantaged females, to require the south carolina department of highways and public transportation to certify eligible business concerns, to require at least thirty (30) days notice of contracts to be let to eligible concerns, and to provide for exceptions. Reasons for Effort:

- of Letter "the Caucus expressed dissatisfaction with the present level of accomplishment relative to minority contractors, specifically regarding performance of Disabled Business Enterprises.
- the Caucus enclosed a copy of the statutory provision and a copy of SCDHPT's letter of April 29, 1987 to Representative White.

S.C. Law specifically required that a minimum of 5% of funds be awarded in each category.
- of same letter advised the director that during July, August, September and October 1987, WBE contractors submitted nineteen (19) bids and were awarded eight (8) contracts for a 42.11% success rate. Nature of Effort: Letter from S.C. Minority Contractors to Senator John W. Matthews, Chair Economic Development Committee.

Reasons for Effort: Allegations of collusion between three (3) bidding primes Re Charleston County S. C. File #10,134

Problems Encountered: (S. C. Minority Contractors monitors monthly minority utilization on federal aid highway contracts.) SCDHPT bidded Charleston County SC File #10.132 on March 7, 1989. Several minority contractors submitted yet the majority of the minority contracts bidders were unsuccessful. The Minority contractors purport that upon reviewing the signed affidavit and related materials, many question were unanswered and the particular job raised issues of concerns "regarding restraining free competitive bidding." Richard Jackson and Anthony Hunter the Association's vice president and treasurer, respectively, requested assistance from the caucus in the areas below:

- Request that the Federal Aid Job (SC File#10.132A, etc., scheduled to be awarded by the Commissioner be delayed;
- Request a legal investigation regarding restricting free competition on S.C. File#10134A, etc.; and Review all files relating to the S.C. File#10.132A contract for potential of collusion by Banks Construction Company, United Contractors and Republic Contracting.

Results of Effort: Letter of March 14, 1989 from Senator Matthews to one G. Rideoute, Executive Director of SCDHPT requesting a delay based on allegations that collusion between three bidding primes might have occurred. #2 of letter also requested an investigation on the restriction of free competition on the Charles S.C. File#10.134A. #3 further requested the director to review the bidding practice to assure that there was not collusion as outlined by Federal and state law prior to the submission of bids on this matter. Caucus requested a decision prior to the proposed awards on Thursday, March 17, 1989.

6. Source of Evidence: Governor's Office of Small and Minority Business Assistance. Manual for the Certification of Minority Owned-Firms

Date of Evidence: Unknown

Nature of Effort: In 1982, the S. C. General Assembly enacted the South Carolina Consolidated Procurement Code. (Title II, Chapter 35, SC.Code). Article 21 of this law outlines the basis for the development of a program to encourage minority participation in the state procurement process. Sub-Article 3, Section 11-35-5210 of Article 21 outlines the stat's policy: "The South Carolina General assembly declares that business firms owned and operated by minority persons have been historically restricted from full participation in our free enterprise system to a degree disproportionate to other businesses. The General Assembly believes that it is in the state's best interest to assist minority-owned businesses to develop fully as a part of the stat's policies and program which are designed to promote balanced economic and community growth throughout the state. The General Assembly, therefore, wishes to ensure that those businesses owned and operated by minorities are afforded the opportunity to fully participate in the overall procurement process of the state. The general Assembly, therefore, takes this leadership role in setting procedures that will result in awarding contracts and subcontracts to minority business firms in order to enhance minority capital ownership, overall state economic development and to reduce dependency on the part of minorities. ....

Reasons for Effort: To rectify past discrimination practices against minority businesses.

Result of Effort: Article 21 of the S. C. Consolidated Procurement Code., 1982.

7. Source of Evidence: Governor's Office of Small and Minority Business Assistance

Date of Evidence: Unknown

Nature of Effort: Outlines the procedures and criteria used by the Office of Small and Minority Business Assistance to certify eligible minority owned businesses under the provisions of Article 21 of the S. C. Consolidated Procurement Code.

Reasons for Effort: S.C. Minority Procurement Program is designed to encourage participation in the state procurement system for minorities who are socially and economically disadvantaged. The program is intended to encourage those business firms and owners who have not participated in the procurement system to a degree that it determined to be reasonable as compared to non-minority-owned companies.

Date of Evidence: June 3, 1987

Nature of Effort: Amendment 19, Doc. No. 55704OY

Reasons for Effort: Section 12-27-1320. (A) of total state source highway funds expended in a fiscal year on construction contracts, the Department of Highways and Public Transportation, through the use of goals or set-asides, provided that goals be used only on projects exceeding $500,000, shall insure not less than:

- Five percent are expended with small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals (DBEs) as defined in Public Law 95-507; and
- Five percent are expended with firms owned and controlled by disadvantaged females (WBEs). The Department shall certify eligible firms under this section and shall give at least thirty (30) days notice to certified firms of contracts to be left. No firm may be certified if it has previously been certified as a DBE or WBE for purposes of Federal or state source highway construction contracts set-asides for more than five (5) years.

(A) If no DBE or WBE firms certified pursuant to this paragraph are available to perform a contract, the Department shall certify and record this fact, and the verification must be preserved in Department records. To the extent a goal or set-aside for a particular category cannot be met, the unused portion of a goal or set-aside must be added to the goal or set-aside of the other category if the appropriate category firm is available.

(B) To facilitate implementation of this section, the department may waive or guarantee bonding requirements for contracts let pursuant to this section with estimated construction costs not exceeding $250,000 dollars a contract, and any contract set aside and awarded to a DBE or WBE contractor without bonding shall provide expressly that termination of the contract for default of the contractor renders the contractor ineligible for any further department non-bonded set-aside contracts for a minimum period of two years from the date of the notice.

- (C) In awarding any contract pursuant to this section, preference must be given to an otherwise eligible South Carolina Contractor submitting a responsible bid not exceeding an otherwise eligible out-of-state contractor's low bid by two and one-half percent.
- (D) A DBE or WBE acting as a prime contractor in letting subcontracts, shall comply with the applicable provisions of this Section.
- (E) The department shall make available technical and support services for DBEs and WBEs the same percentages of state source highway construction funds as is provided for the same purpose in Federal highway construction funds, not to exceed $100,000.
- (F) Procurement and contracts made pursuant to Section 106(c) of the Federal, Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1987 (STAA-1987) are subject to the provisions of Sections 11-35-1210(2), 11-35-1220, and 11-35-1230.

Date of Evidence: Unknown

Nature of Effort: Section 1-35-5270, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended.

Reason for Effort: Established the Office of Small and Minority Business Assistance to promote state and local procurement from small and minority business firms.

11. Source of Evidence: S. C. Legislative Audit Council

Date of Evidence: May 1991

Nature of Effort: Briefing Report to the General Assembly "limited-scope review of the minority goals program of the SCDHPT."

Reason for Effort: Request of the General Assembly

Problems Encountered:

Results of Effort: This review of the DBE/WBE program covered the period FY-86-87 through FY-89-90. According to agency records, approximately $91 million was committed to DEB/WBE subcontractors during our review period.

In January 1987 and January 1990, respectively, 139 and 147 DBE/WBE(s) were listed as "Certified to work as minority subcontractors on highway projects". In January 1991 (following a change in the focus of the state DBE/WBE program from subcontractor to contractor work which was not reviewed), 111 companies were listed as certified minority subcontractors.

Validity: Evidence was drawn from SCDHPT records

- A survey was conducted of subcontractors who had contracted with the SCDHPT through the DBE/WBE program during the period under review.
- Sampled awards to contractors which represented approximately 85% of the dollar value of contracts committed to DBE/WBE subcontractors during the period under review.
- Verified payments to DBE/WBE subcontractors through surveying respondents and comparing their payment records to those of SCDHPT.

Review Area 1: To what extent has the Department monitored the DBE/WBE program to ensure that the program goals are met?

SCDHPT had not developed procedures to monitor the timeliness of payments from contractors to DBE/WBE subcontractors, which may affect their ability to stay in business. In addition, although $91 million was "committed" to DBE/WBE subcontractors in our four-year test period, the amount actually paid "to the subcontractors could not be determined. Thus, LAC could not determine if the goal of expending 10% of construction funds was being met.

Additionally, SCDHPT does not require written contracts between contractors and hauling subcontractors. Thus, haulers, who accounted for $14.6 (16%) of the committed funds during the LAC test period, have less protection than other subcontractors. In violation of federal guidelines, SCDHPT has allowed material costs to count toward the minority goal even though they were not purchased from minority sources.

Review Area 2: Do certification procedures include adequate controls to ensure that qualified, bona fide DBE/WBE firms are certified to perform work on highway projects?

Finding(s): The LAC found no evidence that SCDHPT was intentionally certifying clearly ineligible firms. However, contrary to state law, SCDHPT had awarded construction contracts with DBE/WBE goals to companies which did not use certified DBE/WBE contractors.

Review Area 3: What factors exist that negatively impact the operation of the DBE/WBE program?

Finding: Lack of coordination between SCDHPT's Office of Compliance and Office of Construction hinders enforcement and monitoring of the program. Also, neither office has a system for following up on complaints which have included allegation of "fronts" and concerns about subcontractor payments and the costs of materials not purchased from DBE/WBEs being counted towards the minority goal.

Issue for Further Study: One issue for further study was identified - The 1990 amendment to the S. C. Statutes changed the focus of the program from minority goals (subcontractor) to a set-aside (contractor) program. Contractors must have a certain level of resources available in order to be certified. Many minority firms do not have resources which would allow them to participate at this level. Example: As of April 1991, only 23 DBE/WBE firms had been certified to bid as contractors on set-aside projects. One hundred, thirty-five (135) DBE/WBE firms had been certified to bid as contractors. Evidence indicated that only a few DBE/WBE companies would benefit from the set-aside program.

According to Department records, only 13 DBE/WBE firms acted as contractors on the 67 set-aside projects awarded between FY 86-87 and FY 89-90. Five of the 13 firms were awarded a total of 47 (70%) of the set-aside contracts. The 47 contracts amounted to approximately $8.9 million, (76%) of the $11.7 million awarded for all set-aside projects. A number of recommendations were included in the LAC 1991 review which focused on improving the DBE/WBE program. The SCDHPT concurred with the recommendations for the most part and instituted corrective actions to comply with the recommendations.

Date of Evidence: December 1988

Nature of Effort: S.C.State Development Board Publication Vol. 2 No. 2

Reasons for Effort: Reorganization of Office of Small and Minority Business Assistance

Proposed Results:

- Computerizing all business listings.
- Reduce the turnaround time required for certification.
- Require state agencies to list only "certified" firms when submitting their annual minority spending reports.
- Publishing Minority Business Directory.
- Certifying women-owned businesses.
- These changes designed to enhance economic development throughout the state.

Information from one key informant indicated that the early program in South Carolina under the Service Transportation Act of 1982 simply did not work. i.e.

"lots of people were named who never performed the work."

"there was not a genuine concern on the part of SCDOT to ensure that work was given to the targeted group."

"Bid shopping was widespread." "Often work given to a business was terminated for questionable reasons. Then the work was given to a non-minority contractor close to the prime contractor."

"At some point, I recall some 190 million let in South Carolina. But only 19 million went to minority contractors. The Department did not institute procedures to monitor for compliance. Many sub-contractors were not paid for their work. It was not rare to find that the president of a company was an employee of a prime contractor with no equipment, records of anything for accountability."

"The way it was structured in South Carolina it was never intended to work. Minority contractors were forced to organize in order to look out for their interest. This would have been a paid service. Minority contractors did not want to pay for this service and many went under in my judgement."

Another key informant identified certification as a major problem for DBEs. Generally the process does not look at whether the contractor can succeed at the proposed work. Therefore, SC certifies more contractors who are not capable of performing certain jobs. Prime contractors has the advantage, for minority contractors are already in debt. Rather than costing out a job, most sub estimates are quoted as the prevailing price. In the sense of management, business managers aren't always journeymen and journeymen often are not good managers.

More education and training is required to promote good competition among "qualified" firms. More qualified firms get the larger portion of business and less capable get near none. There appears to be a systemic approach to maintain the status quo.

"Primes most always tell the majority of the DBE contractors what the numbers are. In a nut shell, the bottom line is economics."

Date of Evidence: March/April 1991

Nature of Effort: General Assembly establishes preliminary guidelines for DEB program.

Reasons for Effort: Previously SCDHPT used DEBs to meet the 10% goals for Federally-funded highway contract work.

Problems Encountered: (1) Primes complained of the lack of available qualified DEBS to fulfill the established project goals. (2) DEBs complained that (a) were not selected for subcontract work; (b) were confronted with low prices (c) experienced difficulty in getting paid; (d) communication problems on the project site. DEBs felt strongly that they were in worse condition because of their participation in the highway construction program.

Results of Effort: General Assembly drafted new set-aside program which became effective July 1, 1991. SCDHPT used preliminary guidelines for implementation. Regulations for set-aside program currently being drafted. DEBS will have opportunity for review and comment on proposed regulations. Proposed program eliminates all DBE goals on state-funded projects and establishes mandatory set-a-sides for the state program such that 10% of total state source highway funds be spent in each fiscal year on direct contract between DEBS and SCDHPT. Provisions provide for and equal distribution of 5% WBE/5% for contracts valued at $250,000 or less. A major incentive of the proposed regulations is the provision to waive the bond requirements for projects valued at $250,000 or less. Developmental Training for the participating firms was included in the set-aside law. Training focused on four major areas: Business development and technical management, methodology of estimating, construction cost accounting and engineering assistance. Additionally Entrepreneurial Development Institute Program (EDIP) Institutes are funded by the Department and conducted by the Small Business Development Center at South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, South Carolina. According to Director of Compliance, Benjamin F. Byrd, the Department's training efforts focuses on two primary objectives: (1) to educate M/WBEs in expanding their businesses in the construction industry, an area in which they all share common needs and (2) to establish an even ground on which M/WBEs can compete for highway projects and become self-sustaining.

Problems Encountered: The MBE' and WBE's did not receive the equitable share of the Richland County procurement budget.

Results of Effort: The County Buyer has to submit a quarterly reports showing the percentage of the total procurements from minority owned and operated businesses. The report is based on the minority business listings of the Source published by Burton Associates, "The National Minority Business Directory" and the "South Carolina minority Business Directory." Results of Effort: The Compliance Review Committee for the DHPT Minority Goal program found that the Department was in compliance with five of the ten findings in the Legislative Audit Council's report. The Department was also in partial compliance with one other RAC's finding. The Committee found that there was non-compliance in one issue area. The committee recognized that a problem existed in that issue area and recommended that the problem should be dealt with by statutory changes.

Reasons for Effort: Requested by the member of the SC General Assembly

Problems Encountered: Lack of proper procedures, coordination and monitoring by the SCDHPT to implement the Minority Goals program

Results of Effort: The Legislative Audit Council (LAC) reviewed operations of the DBE/WBE program of the SCDHPT from FY 86-87 through FY 89-90. The LAC found that both oversight and record keeping of this program needs improvement if program outcomes are to be met. The federal and state government laws require that at least 10 percent of the public funds for construction projects be evenly distributed between disadvantaged and women business enterprises. Based upon the evidence drawn from SCDHPT records and survey of DBE/WBE contractors the LAC found that the SCDHPT had not developed procedures to monitor the timeliness of payments from contractors to DBE/WBE subcontractors, which may affect their ability to stay in business. In addition, although $91 million was committed to DBE/WBE subcontractors in the four-year test period, the amount actually paid to these subcontractors could not be determined. In violation of federal guidelines, SCDHPT had allowed material costs to count toward the minority goal even though they were not purchased from minority sources. There was also evidence of violation of state law as SCDHPT awarded construction contracts with DBE/WBE goals to companies which did not use certified DBE/WBE contractors.

ANALYSES OF FEDERAL AND HIGHWAY AND BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS

Market Area for Highway and Bridge Federal Aid Projects

A second market area was determined for highway and bridge construction projects funded with federal aid. Federal aid projects for the 14 years 1980-1993 make up 69.42% of all highway and bridge construction contracts awarded during that time period. As shown in Appendix J-1, these 1,026 federally funded projects totaled $1,904,910,220.33 awarded to 170 unique firms. With 75.15% of the total dollars awarded to firms in South Carolina, the state represents the relevant market area. The 844 contracts within the relevant market area were given to 108 unique firms.

Federal Aid Projects Awarded to Prime Contractors

Appendix J-2 presents the SCDOT utilization of prime contractors on federally aided highway and bridge construction contracts. Of the $2,744,172,996.63 awarded for all highway and bridge contracts over the 14 years, $1,904,910,220.33 came out of federal aid projects. The results of the utilization are as follows:

- Black firms were awarded $11,571,384.24 or 0.81% of the total dollars for the entire study period. They were not utilized at all in eight of the 14 years and had their highest utilization in 1987, when they secured 3.04% of the prime dollars, the highest for any minority during the study.
- Hispanic, Asian, and Native American firms were not utilized on federal aid projects at any point throughout the 14 years.
- White women-owned firms were utilized in only two of the 14 years. The sum of the years reflects $1,479,976.05 or 0.10% awarded to white women-owned firms.

- White male firms by far were the most utilized category for the period studied. They received 100% of the contracts in seven of the 14 years, and their lowest level was in 1987 when they were awarded 96.85% of the dollars.

Federal Aid Projects Awarded to Subcontractors

DBE subcontractors were awarded $120,188,802.70 or 8.43% of the dollars awarded to prime contractors for highway and bridge federal aid projects. Appendix J-3 presents the utilization figures for these DBE subcontractors, and the findings are presented in the following:

- Black firms earned a total of $61,847,235.36 or 4.34% of total prime contract dollars over the 14 years. Their highest level of utilization was in 1988 when they received $13,536,926.40 or 10.21% for the year.
- Hispanic firms were utilized in 12 of the 14 years, with the highest level in 1993 when they captured 0.98% of the prime contractor dollars. The summary of the years shows total utilization at $3,199,595.72 or 0.22% of the dollars awarded to subcontractors.
- Asian and Native American and white women-owned firms had similar levels of utilization for the 14-year period. They received 1.71% and 2.16% of the total prime contractor dollars respectively.

Availability of DBEs for Highway and Bridge Construction Contracts Including Federal Aid Projects

For the purposes of this study, MGT analyzed highway and bridge construction contracts as an entire group and prepared analysis of federal aid projects separately. It was necessary to prepare only one set of availability figures, since all firms in the market area are available to work in either category. The availability of highway and bridge construction firms is presented in Chapter 6, Findings, Exhibit 6-16.

Disparity for Highway and Bridge Construction Contracts-Federal Aid Projects

Appendix J-4 and Appendix J-5 present the disparity findings for total dollars awarded to highway and bridge construction prime contractors for federal aid projects.

- Black firms were substantially underutilized in every year of the period studied. The sum for the 14 years shows a disparity index of 7.40, showing overall substantial underutilization.
- Hispanic, Asian, and Native American firms were not utilized at any time during the years studied; therefore the total of the years indicates indices of 0.00. In 1980, Asian and Native American firms show parity, because no firms were available and none were utilized.
- White women-owned firms were not utilized in 11 of the 14 years within the study period, showing disparity indices of 0.00. In 1983, 1987, and 1993, white women-owned firms were substantially underutilized, with indices ranging from 1.06 to 13.84 for the three years. The summary of the study period indicates substantial underutilization, with an index of 1.37.
- White men-owned firms were overutilized in each of the 14 years with disparity indices ranging from 107.89 to 125.36. The sum of the years produces an index of 119.53, showing that these firms were overutilized during the study period.

Appendix J-6 and Appendix J-7 show the levels of disparity for subcontractors for highway and bridge federal aid construction projects.

- Black firms were substantially underutilized in 12 of the 14 years of the study. They show overutilization of 101.14 in 1988; however, the summary of activity indicates substantial underutilization, with a disparity index of 43.63.
- Hispanic firms were underutilized in 11 of the 14 years, with disparity indices ranging from 0.00 to 85.19. In 1989, 1992, and 1993 they show overutilization, but the overall index for the 14 years reflects substantial underutilization, with an index of 78.26.
- Asian and Native American firms were overutilized in the 14 years of the study, with a cumulative index of 732.00 for the period.
- White women-owned firms were consistently underutilized, with indices from 6.55 to 67.47. The 14-year summary shows substantial underutilization with an index of 27.05.

APPENDIX K

STATISTICAL CORRELATION ANALYSES

One of the requirements of the SCDOT request for proposals (RFP) was that the study attempt to determine the extent to which factors other than race and/or gender (such as size, age, bonding capacity, etc) explained any disparities that might be found in the utilization of DBE firms. In response to the requirements of the RFP, we collected and analyzed an extensive amount of data on both minority-owned and women-owned firms to determine the statistical correlation between the level of income of firms and other factors such as DBE status, size, age, and bonding capacity.

This section describes the analytical processes and results.

Source of Data

All data came from the completed surveys of 285 firms described earlier in section 7.2 of this report. No other sources of data were available. The survey data contained information from 70 black-owned firms, 44 white female-owned firms, 13 other DBEs, and 150 non-DBEs (white male-owned firms).

Analytical Model

Simple statistical regression analyses were used to determine the correlations between the level of revenues that firms reported having received from the SCDOT and various explanatory variables. Additionally, the intercorrelations among the explanatory variables were also examined. The explanatory variables analyzed were:

- DBE status (1, if DBE; 0 if not DBE)
- age of firm
- number of employees of firm

- bonding capacity of firm

Intercorrelations

Intercorrelations among explanatory variables show the extent to which variables are related to each other. Explanatory variables which are highly intercorrelated tend to have the same level of explanation of the variations in the variable being explained, making it difficult, if not impossible, to determine which explanatory variable has the most impact on the variable being explained. For example, if DBE firms tend to be small and small firms tend to have lower incomes, it is impossible to determine if the low levels of income are due to the DBE status or to the size of the firm.

An intercorrelation of 1.00 means that the two variables are basically identical or are perfectly correlated. An intercorrelation of .50 means, in lay terms, that the two variables explain approximately 50% of the variations in the observations about each other. A negative correlation simply shows that the two variables are negatively correlated. That is, a decrease in one results in an increase of the other. In lay terms, again, for a study of this type, absolute intercorrelations of .25 or higher are meaningful.

EXHIBIT K-1 INTERCORRELATIONS OF EXPLANATORY VARIABLES FOR FIRM INCOME DIFFERENCES

	Age of Firm	Bonding Capacity	Size (No. Employed)	DBE Status
Age of Firm	1.00	.316	.315	.253
Bonding Capacity	.316	1.00	.533	-.345
Size (# Employed)	.315	.533	1.00	-.488
M/WBE Status	-.253	-.345	-.488	1.000

Source: Derived from firm survey data conducted by MGT.

As can be seen in the Exhibit, meaningful intercorrelations exist among most of the explanatory variables. For example,

- the intercorrelation between the age of the firm and the bonding capacity is .316, meaning that older firms tend to have greater bonding capacity; and
- the intercorrelation between firm size and bonding capacity is .533, indicating that larger firms tend to have more bonding capacity than smaller firms.

The problem lies in determining the degree to which DBE status causes the variations in firm revenues from the SCDOT, since, as shown in Exhibit K-1, DBE status is correlated with firm age (-.233), size (-.488), and bonding capacity (-.345). The negative correlating factors indicate that most of the older, larger firms with large bonding capacity are not DBE firms. Because of these intercorrelations, it is impossible to isolate the impact that DBE status, age of firm, size of firm, and bonding capacity, each independently have on a firm's revenue from the SCDOT. These intercorrelations, hence, severely restrict the ability of statistical analyses to isolate the effects of firm ownership, size, age, and bonding capacity on firm revenue.

Regression Analyses

Four separate regressions analyses were run:

- (1)  $\text{SCDOT Rev} = K_1 + B_1 (\text{DBE status})$
- (2)  $\text{SCDOT Rev} = K_2 + B_2 (\text{number of employees of firm})$
- (3)  $\text{SCDOT Rev} = K_3 + B_3 (\text{age of firm in years})$
- (4)  $\text{SCDOT Rev} = K_4 + B_4 (\text{DBE status}) + B_5 (\text{number of employees}) + B_6 (\text{age of firm})$

where SCDOT Rev. = revenue from the SCDOT reported by firms

$K_1, K_2, K_3, \text{ \& } K_4$  = Constant Terms

$B_1, B_2, B_3, B_4, B_5, \text{ \& } B_6$  = Coefficient showing relationship between SCDOT Rev. and the selected independent variables.

Bonding capacity was eliminated from the analyses because over half of the firms in the survey did not report bonding capacity.

SCDOT Revenue Versus DBE Status

The regression analysis produced the following relationship between firm revenue from the SCDOT and the DBE status of firms:

$$\text{SCDOT Rev} = $2,337,361 - $1,946,682 (\text{DBE status})$$

with an adjusted  $R^2$  of .13180

The equation means that based upon the reported data, DBE firms would be expected to receive $1,946,682 less in revenue from the SCDOT than the average for all firms, simply because of their DBE status. The  $R^2$  of .13180 means, in lay terms, that the DBE status of firms accounted for 13.18% of the variation in firm revenues from the SCDOT. Because of the intercorrelations stated above, one cannot be assured that this relationship is not being influenced by other variables, such as firm age and number of employees.

SCDOT Revenue versus Number of Employees

The regression analyses produced the following relationship between firm revenue from the SCDOT and the number of employees.

$$\text{SCDOT Rev.} = -$176,804 + $60,484 (\text{number of employees})$$

with an adjusted  $R^2$  of .37928

The equation means that, based upon the reported data, firms averaged approximately $60,484 more in revenue from the SCDOT for each employee. The  $R^2$ of .37928 means, in lay terms, that the number of employees in a firm accounted for 37.93% of the variation in firm revenues from the SCDOT. Again, because of the intercorrelations stated above, one cannot be assured that this relationship is not being influenced by other variables, such as firm DBE status and firm age.

SCDOT Revenue versus Firm Age

The regression analyses produced the following relationship between firm revenue from the SCDOT and the age of the firm:

$$\text{SCDOT Rev.} = $476,417 + $44,732 (\text{age of firm in years})$$

$$\text{with } R_2 = .08030$$

The equation means that for each additional year in age, firms generally reported an additional $44,732 in revenue from the SCDOT. The  $R_2$  of .08030 means that the equation accounts for 8.03% of the variations in firm revenue from the SCDOT. Again, because of the intercorrelations reported above, one cannot be assured that the relationship is not being influenced by other variables, such as firm DBE status and number of employees.

SCDOT Revenue versus all three variables

SCDOT Revenue was simultaneously regressed against all three variables, the results were as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} \text{SCDOT Rev.} = & -$101,910 + $58,795 (\text{number of employees}) \\ & + $1263 (\text{age of firm in years}) \\ & - $137,200 (\text{DBE status}) \end{aligned}$$

$$\text{with } R_2 = .36074$$

The equations mean that when all three independent variables are considered, firm revenue increased by $58,795 for each additional employee and $1263 for each additional year of age, and decreased by $137,200 if the firm was a DBE. Notice, however, that an adjusted  $R^2$  is only .36074, which is slightly below the adjusted  $R^2$  of .37928 found above when firm size alone was used. Thus, the addition of DBE Status and firm age to the regression analysis added no explanatory value. Again, however, because of the intercorrelations, it is impossible to isolate the contributions that each of the variables independently make to explaining the variations in firm revenues from the SCDOT.

Conclusions

The use of statistical analyses to isolate the levels of disparity due to DBE status and the levels due to other factors, such as firm age, number of employees, and bonding capacity, are of only marginal value. Three major problems inhibit the isolation of such explanations:

- (1) Data sources which contain data for all of the needed variables do not exist and are prohibitively expensive to build. In this analyses, we used a survey of 285 firms. Firms did not respond to all survey items and, of course, all data were self reported. Further all data were limited to current data from firms currently in existence; no historical data were gathered from existing firms and, of course, no data were gathered from firms which existed in the past but have since gone out of business.
- (2) Disparity cannot be measured on a firm-by-firm basis. Hence, proxies have to be used to measure disparity. In this case, we used revenue from the SCDOT.
- (3) Intercorrelations exist among potential explanatory variables such as DBE status, number of employees, age of firm, bonding capacity, etc. Thus, it is difficult to isolate how much of a firm's income is explained by any one of the variables.

Because of the above problems, our statistical analyses were inconclusive.
