I know of 2 homeless teens right now who have been living in there car since Christmas. I just found out. One was a senior in high school this yr and didn't go back after Christmas because she had no where to shower, sleep, feel like a teen. The other is trying to wk. He goes in early to try to get all the hrs they will give him. If they have no wk then it is a warm place for him to stay. He's a great young man. I've been letting them stay at my house some but our family is on a very tight income and struggle our selves. Please please get something here in Pickens County.
