What I'd go ahead and do is ask her at one of her media availabilities where she's talking to reporters almost daily. She's doing one at 4:30 PM today. I don't know when the next time she'd have one on one time available is.

Hello Rob.

Due to the tragic flooding in Columbia this month, we have rescheduled our time in Columbia to talk about Money Laundering in South Carolina (the money transfer business loopholes) until the 22nd of October. Is there a 5-minute window that we might catch the Governor for a brief statement on the issue. You should have the report links I sent last month. If you need them resent, just let me know. We are planning to be in Columbia between 10:30am and 7pm. Any help you can offer is very much appreciated.

Best,

David
