Subject: Walmart to give hiring preference to military spouses

Dear Kevin Bryant,

I wanted to share this with you in case you missed it! We're proud to share that Walmart announced it will give hiring preference to military spouses, becoming the largest U.S. company to make such a commitment. Through the Military Family Promise, Walmart has long offered military spouses and veterans the ability to transfer from one Walmart or Sam's Club location to another when a spouse is transferred because of the military. The Military Spouse Career Connection takes the company's commitment one step further by offering any military spouse with a current Uniformed Services Identification Card hiring preference when they apply for a job with the company beginning on November 12, 2018.

The Military Spouse Career Connection, complements the 2013 Veterans Welcome Home commitment, enhanced in 2015, to hire 250,000 military veterans by 2020. Walmart recently reported hiring more than 212,000 veterans since full implementation of the commitment, and with over 32,000 veteran associates promoted since joining the Walmart and Sam's Club teams, they are turning opportunities into careers.

Sincerely,

Brooke
