Subject: The Crisis of Antimicrobial Resistance

John Rex to Give Exclusive Talk on the Crisis of Antimicrobial Resistance this Fall

Dear Mr Tony Kester,

Industry expert Dr John Rex will be presenting a special keynote address on the global crisis of antibiotic resistance at SMI's Superbugs & Superdrugs congress this fall.

The industry meeting set to take place on Nov 14th and 15th in Iselin, New Jersey, will gather a global audience of scientific leaders, funding bodies and drug development specialists, providing a focal point to discuss funding opportunities and clinical advancements in drug discovery.

With over 30 years of development and policy experience focused on antimicrobial agents, John is currently Senior Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer at the AstraZeneca Infection Business Unit.

His presentation entitled, Enabling Drug Discovery and Development to Address the Crisis of Antimicrobial Resistance, will discuss new tools and pathways as well as explore remaining challenges faced by the medical industry.
