Once upon a time, there was an incredible dragon who flew around eating everything he could see. This sounds like your favorite fairytale -- BUT this is a true story that happens every day at Sesquicentennial State Park! And there's a lot more....Join us at Sesqui this Saturday, June 30, at 10 a.m. to experience the exciting world of insect predators. Pre-registration is required by Friday and space is limited. Adults must accompany children 15 and under. To register call (803) 788-2706 or email sesqui@scprt.com. <https://southcarolinaparks.com/products/10004775>

Dan Goodwin A damselfly. We always called them "Snake Doctors."
