Hey Chaney,

I was just hoping to get a statement from y'all about if there is any directive from the governor's office for state employees in general, or employees in specific agencies, to avoid clocking overtime. Is there direction from the governor's office to only log normal business hours?

I also am working on another story about implementation of the abortion bill. I'll call you tomorrow about that, but wanted to put it on your radar.

Thanks so much.
